Falling for the Village Vet 2022-07-26 as a veterinary student approaches the end of training and then starts that first job in practice there is a sense not only of achievement and fulfilment but also of terror and self doubt few of us will ever again be as knowledgeable about all aspects of the care diseases and treatment of horses cows sheep pigs cats and dogs as we were at the time of graduation unfortunately there is a seventh species to contend with the clients

It's a Vet's Life 2011-11-10 joe inglis star of bbc 1 s award winning series vets in practice has written his diary for a year it spans his first job after finishing training with a small devonshire practice where farmyard crises loom large to an urban one where domestic pets in trouble are more the norm although he had to give the kiss of life to a snake on camera even the newly qualified raw young vet can see that there are good vets and bad sound practice and short cuts joe inglis diary is very amusing and full of incident but also outspoken about some aspects of caring for animals the countryside and about people who keep animals funny and very touching family circle

Conquer Your Email Overload: Super Tips and Tricks for Busy People 2012-05-23 the hair raising adventures of an irish vet whether castrating horses in dublin s inner city or dehorning cattle in the wilds of wicklow rescuing mangled cats from mongrels or tending to stoned guard dogs vet gillian hick s sense of humour never deserts her in this engaging account of the challenging situations she encounters in the course of her work as a newly qualified veterinary surgeon not only does she have to deal with the animals and their ailments but she also has to contend with the perils of matchmaking mothers and macho farmers not to mention the guys who want to know where is the real vet
