shame use this guide to confront your temptations and be amazed by how the power of god can work in your life the book is about the triune being of god and how we as mankind are created in his image first god has spirit soul and body the lord jesus christ man has a spirit soul and body through study i have found that the soul is in the blood the spirit is in the heart the inward or inner man is the heart the heart is the center of the soul it is full of blood which contains the soul therefore they are one and the same it proves that the mind and will are seated in the heart the brain is a processor that brings thoughts imagination etc which come from the heart in some mysterious fashion that only god almighty understands those thoughts reasoning imaginations flow from the heart through the blood to the brain this is where these things are manifested it feels like the brain is the mind because there is a process going on there thoughts are being brought into the physical realm
