volume 54 sermons 3073 3124 charles spurgeon 19 june 1834 31 january 1892 is one of the church's most famous preachers and christianity's foremost prolific writers called the prince of preachers he was one of england's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among christians of different denominations today his sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades in his lifetime spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people often up to ten times each week he was the pastor of the congregation of the new park street chapel later the metropolitan tabernacle in london for 38 years he was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons commentaries an autobiography as well as books on prayer devotionals magazines poetry hymns and more spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound many christians have discovered spurgeon's messages to be among the best in christian literature edward walford wrote in old and new london volume 6 1878 quoting an article from the times regarding one of spurgeon's meetings at surrey fancy a congregation consisting of 10 000 souls streaming into the hall mounting the galleries humming buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all after waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance mr spurgeon ascended his tribune to the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours it is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse it is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the calvinist nor the baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by mr spurgeon with relentless animosity and with gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity more than a hundred years after his death charles spurgeon's legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world for this reason delmarva publications has chosen to publish the complete works of charles spurgeon

this book debunks the argument that quality in education can only be achieved by limiting or trading off equality the quality of schooling is a major issue for third world nations across the globe however there is no single measure which is universally accepted whether it is as some economists might argue an issue of the number of desks per classroom or one of national sovereignty is widely disputed defining equality in education becomes increasingly difficult in an era of globalization in which there exists a wide gap between rich and poor both within and between nations in the context of an international move towards new right politics and neo liberal economic ideologies both the quality and equality of education are imperiled this book argues that any worthy definition of quality education must include the interests and participation of the underprivileged romanticism was always culturally diverse though english language anthologies have previously tended to see romanticism as predominantly british the term itself actually originated in germany where it became the banner of a europe wide movement involving the profound intellectual and aesthetic changes which we now associate with modernity this anthology is the first to place british romanticism within a comprehensive and multi lingual european context showing how ideas and writers interconnected across national and linguistic boundaries by reprinting everything in the original languages together with an english translation of all non english material in parallel on the opposite page it offers a new intellectual map of romanticism material is thematically arranged as follows art aesthetics the self history language hermeneutics theology nature the exotic science while focusing on european texts the inclusion of essays on their north american and japanese reception means that romanticism can be seen as a global phenomenon influencing a surprising number of the ways in which the modern world sees itself if the trumpet give an uncertain sound who shall prepare himself to the battle 1 corinthians 14 8 the volume now in the reader s hands consists of a series of papers systematically arranged on the leading truths of christianity which are necessary to salvation few probably will deny that there are some things in religion about which we may think other people hold very erroneous views and are notwithstanding in no danger of being finally lost about baptism and the lord s supper about the christian ministry about forms of prayer and modes of worship about the union of church and state about all these things it is commonly admitted that people may differ widely and yet be finally saved no doubt there are always bigots and extreme partisans who are ready to excommunicate every one who cannot pronounce their shibboleth on the above named points but speaking generally to shut out of heaven all who disagree with us about these things is to take up a position which most thoughtful christians condemn as unscriptural narrow and uncharitable on the ether hand there are certain great truths of which some knowledge by common consent appears essential to salvation such truths are the immortality of the soul the sinfulness of human nature the work of christ for us as our redeemer the work of the holy ghost in us forgiveness justification conversion faith repentance the marks of a right heart christ s invitations christ s intercession and the like if truths like these are not absolutely necessary to salvation it is difficult to understand how any truths whatever can be called necessary if people may be saved without knowing anything about these truths it appears to me that we may throw away our bibles altogether and proclaim that the christian religion is of no use from such a miserable conclusion i hope most people will shrink back with horror to open out and explain these great necessary truths to confirm them by scripture to enforce them by some appeals to the conscience of all who read this volume this is the simple object of the series of papers which is now offered to the public the name which i have selected will prepare the reader to expect no new doctrines in this volume it is simple unadulterated old fashioned evangelical theology it contains nothing but the old paths in which the apostolic christians the reformers the best english churchmen for the last three hundred years and the best evangelical christians of the present day have persistently walked from these paths i see no reason to depart they are often sneered at and ridiculed as old fashioned effete worn out and powerless in the nineteenth century be it so none of these things move me i have yet to learn that there is any system of religious teaching by whatever name it may be called high or broad or romish or neologian which produces one quarter of the effect on human nature that is produced by the old despised system of doctrine which is commonly called evangelical i willingly admit the zeal earnestness and devotedness of many religious teachers who are not evangelical but i firmly maintain that the way of the school to which i belong is the more excellent way the longer i live the more i am convinced that the world needs no new gospel as some profess to think i am thoroughly persuaded that the world needs nothing but a bold full unflinching teaching of the old paths the heart of man is the same in every age the spiritual medicine which it requires is always the same the same gospel which was preached by latimer and hooper and bradford ruby hall deviant usher reynolds and hopkins by manton brooks watson charnock owen and gurnall by romaine venn grimshaw hervey and cecil this is the gospel which alone will do real good in the present day the leading doctrines of that gospel are the substance of the papers which compose this volume they are the doctrines i firmly believe of the bible and the thirty nine articles of the church of england they are doctrines which i find wear well and in the faith of them i hope to live and die i repeat most emphatically that i am not ashamed of what are commonly called evangelical principles fiercely and bitterly as those principles are assailed on all sides loudly and scornfully as some proclaim that they have done their work and are useless in this day i see no evidence whatever that they are defective or decayed and i see no reason for giving them up no doubt other schools of thought produce great outward effects on mankind gather large congregations attain great popularity and by means of music ornaments gestures postures and a generally histrionic ceremonial make a great show of religion i see it all and i am not surprised it is exactly what a study of human nature by the light of the bible would lead me to expect but for real inward effects on hearts and outward effects on lives i see no teaching so powerful as thorough genuine evangelical teaching just in proportion as the preachers of other schools borrow evangelical weapons and evangelical phraseology i see them obtaining influence no doubt the good that is done in the world is little and evil abounds but i am certain that the teaching which does most good is that of the despised evangelical school it is not merely true and good up to a certain point and then defective and needing additions as some tell us it is true and good all round and needs no addition at all if those who hold evangelical views were only more faithful to their own principles and more bold and uncompromising and decided both in their preaching and their lives they would soon find whatever infidels and romanists may please to say that they hold the only lever which can shake the world the readers of the many tracts which god has allowed me to send forth for thirty years must not expect much that they have not seen before in old paths experience has taught me at last that the peculiar tastes of all classes of society must be consulted if good is to be done by the press i am convinced that there are thousands of people in england who are willing to read a volume but will never look at anything in the form of a tract it is for them that i now send forth old paths those who read through this book continuously and without a pause will doubtless observe a certain degree of sameness and similarity in some of the papers the same thoughts are occasionally repeated though in a different dress to account for this i will ask them to remember that most of the papers were originally written separately and at long intervals of time in some cases of as much as twenty years on calm reflection i have thought it better to republish them pretty much as they originally appeared few readers of a religious book like this read it all through at once and the great majority i suspect find it enough to read quietly only one or two chapters at a time i now send forth the volume with a deep sense of its many defects but with an earnest prayer that it may do some good j c liverpool this classic includes the following chapters chapter 1 inspiration chapter 2 our souls chapter 3 few saved chapter 4 our hope chapter 5 alive or dead chapter 6 our sins chapter 7 forgiveness chapter 8 justification chapter 9 the cross of christ chapter 10 the holy ghost chapter 11 having the spirit chapter 12 conversion chapter 13 the heart chapter 14 christ s invitation chapter 15 faith chapter 16 repentance chapter 17 christ s power to save chapter 18 election chapter 19 perseverance
