Education for All 2000-2015: Achievements and challenges 2015-04-08 since the 25th january 2011 revolution egyptians experienced and engaged in a daily debate controversially some argued that the conflict and revolts in egypt and the arab region were neither coincidental nor the result of a domino effect of collective actions by oppressed people against autocratic regimes rather these revolts were the result of mobilization efforts made over decades by several activist groups as well as national and international non governmental organizations contrary to this view others claim that despite the rapid economic growth of egypt in the 2000s there was a wide gap in the distribution of wealth and economic return which left the majority of egyptians suffering from poverty and high rate of unemployment especially among youth obviously while national and international economic and political dynamics dominated the daily debate education remains the forgotten arena amidst conflict with the exacerbation of conflict between militant extremists and modern states in the region and most recently in many european countries it became more important than ever before to understand the dialectics of education in conflict in different local contexts starting in this book by the egyptian context the book focuses on education in egypt during the time of the revolution as perceived by university students youth activists educational professionals government officials and civil society organizations its chapters reveal the tension contradiction and or coherence among different players as related to their respective role in education for civic engagement national identity global citizenship peace building teacher professional development and women s and students empowerment the book illustrates the dialectics of education in conflict by articulating diverse meanings and perspectives given by egyptian stakeholders when describing their actions and reality ies during the time of the revolution and its aftermath

Education during the Time of the Revolution in Egypt 2017-11-13 this report on vocational education and training programmes in kazakhstan examines how employers and unions can be engaged how workbased learning can be used and how teachers and trainers can be prepared

OECD Reviews of Vocational Education and Training A Skills beyond School Review of Kazakhstan 2014-12-09 the school to work transition is a critical part of the human life span for young adults their families and society the timing of the transition varies greatly and its co occurrence with a number of other life transitions make it challenging to summarize or generalize individual differences and normative developmental factors as well as external contextual factors such as global pandemics changing economic circumstances workplace demands and cultural shifts intersect to create a range of challenges and opportunities for those navigating this transition written by internationally renowned scholars in developmental psychology applied psychology counseling and sociology the chapters in this book highlight the trends issues and actions that researchers academics practitioners and policy makers need to consider in order to effectively support young adults transition to work pathways this volume provides an explicitly international perspective on this area broad coverage of psychological topics on the school to work transition and an inclusive focus on sub groups and minority groups making it a must read for those who support young adults as they move from school to work

Young Adult Development at the School-to-Work Transition 2021-01-18 this book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions with a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts the book offers a range of important studies from various contexts across the americas including canada the various member nations of the caribbean community caricom puerto rico and the united states the various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study the contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization in addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward toward more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond it will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy
