diverse are closely interrelated with the common concern throughout being that the global environment international trade information technology and legal education need appropriate national normative and institutional responses as well as the global cooperation of members of the international community presenting reflections of a number of asian african and european scholars on these varied facets the book is of great value to scholars practitioners teachers and

A Guide to Ontario School Law 2014-05 this book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions with a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts the book offers a range of important studies from various contexts across the americas including canada the various member nations of the caribbean community caricom puerto rico and the united states the various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study the contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization in addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward toward more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond it will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in indigenous education curriculum
