thomas hardy is unique in english literature as a major novelist who is also a major poet his collected poetry is among the most distinctive bodies of verse in the language and includes such pinnacles of the lyric tradition as the darkling thrush and the series of haunted love elegies written in memory of his first wife emma and such instantly recognizable titles as drummer hodge a trampwoman s tragedy convergence of the twain it is also among the most controversial ever since his poetry first appeared in the collection wessex poems in 1898

readers and critics alike have stumbled over its awkwardnesses or been seduced by its idiosyncratic music have celebrated its unprecedented formal inventiveness or deplored its perceived lack of ambition it has been variously read as an archetype of the victorian intellectual odyssey as the work of a proto modernist and as the fountainhead of contemporary british verse at once traditional and modern the acme of artifice and a conduit of intense emotion it remains a critical enigma this exemplary study guide seeks to set hardy s poetry in the context of his life times and literary heritage and to understand through a close reading of selected poems both the challenge it offers to criticism and the elusive power it continues to exert over each new generation of readers all his collections are introduced including wessex poems poems of the past and present time s laughingstocks satires of circumstance moments of vision late lyrics and earlier human shows and winter words focusing on samuel taylor coleridge mary robinson and mary shelley this book uses key concepts of androgyny subjectivity and the re creative as a productive framework to trace the fascinating textual interactions and dialogues among these authors it crosses the boundary between male and female writers of the romantic period by linking representations of gender with late enlightenment upheavals regarding creativity and subjectivity demonstrating how these interrelated concerns dismantle traditional binaries separating the canonical and the noncanonical male and female poetry and prose good and evil subject and object through the convergences among the writings of coleridge mary robinson and mary shelley the book argues that each dismantles and reconfigures subjectivity as androgynous and amoral subverting the centrality of the male gaze associated with canonical romanticism in doing so it examines key works from each author s oeuvre from coleridge s canonical poems such as rime of the ancient mariner through robinson s lyrical poetry and novels such as walsingham to mary shelley s fiction including frankenstein mathilda and the last man
