History of Saint Louis City and County, from the Earliest Periods to the Present Day: Including Biographical Sketches of Representative Men 2024-01-24 chapter i introduction it may be doubted whether a brighter more prosperous and specially a more orderly colony than britannula was ever settled by british colonists but it had its period of separation from the mother country though never of rebellion like its elder sister new zealand indeed in that respect it simply followed the lead given her by the australias which when they set up for themselves did so with the full co operation of england there was no doubt a special cause with us which did not exist in australia and which was only in part understood by the british government when we britannulists were allowed to stand by ourselves the great doctrine of a fixed period was received by them at first with ridicule and then with dismay but it was undoubtedly the strong faith which we of britannula had in that doctrine which induced our separation nothing could have been more successful than our efforts to live alone during the thirty years that we remained our own masters we repudiated no debt as have done some of our neighbours and no attempts have been made towards communism as has been the case with others we have been laborious contented and prosperous and if we have been reabsorbed by the mother country in accordance with what i cannot but call the pusillanimous conduct of certain of our elder britannulists it has not been from any failure on the part of the island but from the opposition with which the fixed period has been regarded
