excerpt from the world war and the road to peace much that has been spoken and written in these piping times about pacifism and the pacifist has fallen short of its purpose and chiefly because the critics have allowed their zeal to run into violence a people at white heat are apt to have scant patience with lack of fervency and to give short shrift to any who may hang back caution is mistaken for hostility and doubt for treason we are also prone to overlook the psychological fact that error is seldom if ever cured by cursing it wrong opinion like clay is stiffened rather than softened by fire men are not convinced with a cudgel or brought to terms by recrimination about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works spirituality changed my life i obtained the peaceful mind i had lost as a child i noticed how beautiful life really is and how complicated humans make it everybody seems to stress about situations they can t change concern themselves with the ways other people live and ridicule those who are different rather than accept them the truth is that everybody is in need of acceptance we were all born purely perfect until society s norms corrupted us and we felt that we needed to create a socially acceptable version of ourselves it s clear that somebody can t act the way they did as a child throughout their whole lives without being disrespected in reality people envy those who are happier than they are everybody labels everything and everyone else there is not a certain way to do anything and everybody is different morality is going down the drain and people s perspectives are distorted by the media the government and the close minded way of thinking we are led to follow as we grow up after having silence in your mind it becomes apparent why people do the things they do it is lucidity there s so much more i want people to understand i would love for everybody to be at peace with themselves a collection of mind opening revelations that will free the human soul and awaken the desire to spread peace and love
