two on the contrary she has also endured the slogans like sanjay ki mummy badi nikammi for blindly loving her son like gandhari loved duryodhana nonetheless we cannot forget that it was indira gandhi who gave wings to india s strength and courage by conducting the nuclear test however she was also the prime minister for whom the high court issued orders to be removed from her office in fact indira gandhi is merely a symbol of dynasty politics the point here is to remind the young people that they cannot strive for ideal politics by idolising those who have flourished through family inheritance of post or position in today s scenario there are numerous political parties that operate under a single family s control although i hold great admiration for indira gandhi however her darker side is perhaps more prominent hence i believe that young aspirants who are interested in politics can learn valuable lessons from this book on what not to do housing problems have become increasingly complex in the global south an increased pressure to upgrade older stock to provide adequate infrastructure and bring city amenities to urban peripheries compounds the continued need for new housing of a decent standard this comprehensive volume spans nine countries simultaneously analyzing innovative housing policies and questioning the idea of innovation in this arena the authors describe three persistent global challenges to contemporary policy the inherent difficulty in mass producing housing of decent quality with access to the city the challenge of community based upgrading programmes which often fail to benefit those who are worst off and the political root of housing policies which don't always consider the diverse needs of populations at the expense of the least powerful this volume raises questions about what many consider the two most successful areas of housing policy in the global south the community based land sharing programmes for redevelopment in south east asia and the finance driven social housing programmes in latin america the authors examine mass housing production programmes incremental development processes community based urban upgrading the legal structure of condominiums and land sharing policies while also highlighting challenges to policy learning across contexts this book will be of great interest to students researchers and those involved with contemporary housing policies particularly in the global south it was originally published as a special issue of the international journal of housing policy
