Career Construction Theory and Life Writing 2021-05-13 this volume applies the insight and methods of career construction theory to explore how autobiographical writing is used in different professional careers from fiction and journalism to education and medicine it draws attention to the fact that a career is a particular kind of artefact with distinctive properties and features that can be analysed and compared and puts forward a new theory of the relationship between narrative methodology and the vocation of writing career construction theory emerged in the late twentieth century when changes to the patterns of our working lives caused large numbers of people to seek new forms of vocational guidance to navigate those changes it employs a narrative paradigm in which periods of uncertainty are treated as experiences akin to writer s block experiences which can be overcome first by imagining new character arcs then by narrating them and finally by performing them by encouraging clients to see their careers as stories of which they are both the metaphorical authors and the main protagonists career construction counsellors enable them to envisage the next chapter in those stories but despite the authorial metaphor career construction theory has not been widely applied to analysis of professional careers in writing the chapters in this volume remedy that gap and in various ways apply the insights of career construction theory to analyse the relationship between writing and professional life in diverse careers where writing is used the chapters in this book were originally published in the journal life writing Beyond the Hero's Journey 2022-01-07 telling a story is simple right you take a hero and send them on a journey there s a beginning middle and an end but what if your story doesn t fit into that basic structure in beyond the hero s journey bafta award winning screenwriter anthony mullins champions one of the most powerful yet most misunderstood tools in a writer s toolkit character arcs looking at celebrated films from around the world including moonlight lady bird the social network the godfather a fantastic woman mulholland drive shoplifters amour inside llewyn davis call me by your name midsommar and the father he shows how character arcs not only create the emotional shape of a story but also offer writers of all levels an incredible variety of narratives that go far beyond the traditional three act hero s journey for every writer who has ever felt frustrated by the neat confines of how to guides the book will teach you how to excel in telling more complex original and authentic stories and how to share your own distinctive voice with the world essential don t start writing scripts without it benjamin law creator writer of the family law a joy to read and a necessary evolution in critical analysis meg o connell co creator writer of retrograde please note that this ebook contains multiple diagrams and charts it is best viewed on a tablet or laptop screen and may not be optimised for all mobile devices
