 do you do when your world is a living hell do you accept the hand you ve been dealt or do you fight for a better life at every turn lafleur barker chose the latter option this is her story lafleur was born in saint vincent in the grenadines to destitute and overworked parents after enduring a childhood of poverty and abuse she took her destiny in her own hands and travelled to north america in the hopes of finding a better life unfortunately hell followed her across the ocean in canada lafleur endured a series of living nightmares violence cruelty and betrayal met her at every turn alone in a huge country with no family friends or support lafleur had to learn how to survive on her own she endured all the bumps and bruises and she persevered until she reached a light at the end of the tunnel fundamentally lafleur s story is about hope resilience and optimism by trusting herself and the lord she survived the unimaginable she is now blessed with a loving family and a well of hope for the future karamchand gandhi is among the most enigmatic charismatic deeply revered and equally reviled figures of the twentieth century his autobiography one of the most widely read and translated indian books of all time is a classic that allows us to glimpse the transformation of a well meaning lawyer into a satyagrahi and an ashramite in this first ever critical edition eminent scholar tridip suhrud shines new light on gandhi s life and thought the deeply researched notes elucidate the contexts and characters of the autobiography while alternative translations capture the flavour cadence and quirkiness of the gujarati in the highly original and insightful introduction suhrud traces gandhi s transformation into a satyagrahi a seeker of truth as god and explores possible modes of reading the autobiography this edition is an absorbing illuminating text about the life affirming journey of the most public yet most complex figure of indian history this posthumous autobiography tells the story of barry long s life from his early years in australia to a career as a successful newspaper editor and then how successive spiritual crises and realizations made him into a spiritual master who changed the lives of thousands of people around the world it is a candid and sometimes painfully honest account of transformation by love and the transcendental liberation or spiritual freedom is not gained by trying to be like everyone else liberation is to have the will the power the simplicity to be what you are from moment to moment without pretence and without considering what you or others think you should be or should not be naked of being anything you must stand and stand alone this books describes how christ directed the author throughout his career in medical research and life in general from his first 9 years in india to the remaining years in australia it describes his christian conversion at age 40 years and how this
