Le grandi invenzioni antiche e moderne opera compilata da B. Besso 1875* temples are the most prestigious buildings in the urban landscape of ancient italy emerging within a network of centres of the then known mediterranean world notwithstanding the fragmentary condition of the buildings remains these monuments and especially their richly decorated roofs are crucial sources of information on the constitution of political social and craft identities acting as agents in displaying the meaning of images the subject of this volume is thematic and includes material from the eastern mediterranean including greece and turkey contributors discuss the network between patron elites and specialized craft communities that were responsible for the sophisticated terracotta decoration of temples in italy between 600 and 100 bc focusing on the mobility of craft people and craft traditions and techniques asking how images iconographies practices and materials can be used to explain the organization of ancient production distribution and consumption special attention has been given to relations with the eastern mediterranean greece and anatolia investigating craft communities workshop organizations and networks has never been thoroughly undertaken for this period and region nor for this exceptionally rich category of materials or for the craftspeople producing the architectural terracottas papers in this volume aim to improve our understanding of roof production and construction in this period to reveal relationships between main production centres and to study the possible influences of immigrant craftspeople la carezza del falco 1829 an intriguing study on families and their changing roles cross cultural perspectives on families work and change provides fresh viewpoints on factors that have an impact on family life and relationships this thematic volume with chapters from scholars in italy australia israel jordan west germany yugoslavia norway and finland is truly international and covers a variety of substantive concerns among these is the concern for new familial models which will meld both the individual and the whole into a viable family entity capable of providing for the wishes needs and aspirations of the whole and individual members of a family discussing various concepts relating to family structure in lieu of the recent shift toward gender equity and the greater acceptance of varied forms of families and lifestyles this book carefully links the most supportive and nurturing components of modern society with tried and true components of traditional cultures and systems the chapters take a conceptual approach focusing on applications and future needs policies and problems surrounding the family cross cultural perspectives on families work and change represents the increasing shift of mothers to professionals with chapters on increasing female employment and its effect on family life the much needed search for explanations of family and society change and for new family models is a common thread throughout the book in reading this insightful work family and marriage counselors students and academicians in family studies researchers social workers and psychologists will see new ways of perceiving families in their critical roles over generations of time
