Merchant Vessels of the United States ... (including Yachts). 1969 clem seecharan has written a useful documentary history of bechu the first indian to testify before the royal commission in 1897 now who was this bechu he was in seecharan s words an indefatigable gadfly who in letters to the local press revealed the conditions of indian indentureship poor wages sexual exploitation of women by overseers and managers and the virtual impossibility for indians to obtain justice because of the collusion between colonial authorities and the planters this knowledge we owe to economic historian alan adamson who discovered bechu in the 1960s yet the man himself remained somewhat of a mystery something bechu himself seems to have cultivated seecharan has now filled a number of lacunae in our understanding with this two part
