The Scroll of the War of the Sons of Light against the Sons of Darkness ... 1955 the art of vernacular painting in india is not only varied and rich but also intriguing for several reasons with such observations the book addresses certain issues like the validity of the historical information on indian art that excludes vernacular trends the information on vernacular art in india has either been ignored such as in ancient literary discourses or inadvertently misconstrued within the theoretical purviews of modern days if the hierarchy of the hindu caste system has marginalised the culture of the lower rung groups the lexicon of twentieth century anthropological studies has seen this art as material evidence of undeveloped societies both creating the same value to be patronised but not art can art be weighed on a scale of development arguments have been developed within the specific focus on scroll paintings by the itinerant painter bards in bengal the bardic tradition has been known to exist in india since a pre christian era and still continues within two vibrant trends of vernacular art forms bangla and santhal pat the book redefines and repositions the notion of art with contemporary folk art as the picture plates are self evident the book draws attention on a world of art that has not been present in indian art history a small jewish sect calling itself the pure believers worships in babylon during the period of jewish exile in the 6th century bce it mysteriously disappears from the pages of history and nothing is known about it for two thousand years when it is suddenly mentioned by a vatican scholar at an international conference what does the scroll actually say where was it found just who are these purists with their lofty claims of truly knowing the creator god were they just one of the many obscure religious sects persecuted out of existence by mainstream judaism or were they a religious creed that was growing like a wildfire and could have swept the ancient world and quickly consolidated into a major movement threatening the very existence of the established jewish faith this book covers the journey of the scroll its theft loss and burial in the largest book collection in the world it is a fascinating account of active attempts at suppression intrigue and courage shown by one man who is determined to expose to the world such ancient truths and radical views of the creator well may we ask why we have always been told that we were born of sin and that we needed all the theatre of incense and bells of formal religion to find god for ourselves when in reality our creator has always been within us fully aware of our individual limitations and expecting nothing from us always knowing the reasons for our every action god gave jesus a revelation to show his servants things which must come to pass in the revelation we see a scroll written on the inside and on the outside sealed with seven seals as each of the first four seals are opened we see a horseman what is the scroll who or what are the horsemen how will we discern what or who they are how will we know we have discerned correctly many others have attempted to identify the scroll and horsemen this book will not attempt to refute each and every identification they have made nor discuss every possible identification the approach is to show that the evidence fits a single scroll and a single set of horsemen if this approach is successful then it will effectively rule out all other scrolls and horsemen this book will not attempt to discuss the first horseman s bow and the green color of the fourth horseman as there is too little information available to discern them the scroll will be identified first using the evidence regarding the scroll then each horseman will be identified using the evidence regarding each horseman the question about discerning correctly will be answered by showing how the horsemen fit together the horsemen fit the scroll the scroll and horsemen fit the book of revelation and show us things to come
