Paul and the Gift

2017-09-11

john barclay explores pauline theology anew from the perspective of grace arguing that paul s theology of grace is best approached in light of ancient notions of gift barclay describes paul s relationship to judaism in a fresh way barclay focuses on divine gift giving which for paul he says is focused and fulfilled in the gift of christ he both offers a new appraisal of paul s theology of the christ event as gift as it comes to expression in galatians and romans and presents a nuanced and detailed consideration of the history of reception of paul including augustine luther calvin and barth

incorporation refers to the joint concept of the mutual indwelling of the father the son and the spirit and their mutual working together as one these two concepts are not new in christian thought but they are overlooked by many christian teachers and writers today and consequently by many christians in general the effect of this omission is that many common believers if not their teachers fall easily into the mistaken view that the three of the divine trinity exist separably act separably and therefore are separably three gods even though most know better than to say so this book is at one level a reaction to that mistaken view because the writers of the new testament were very far from it in their concept and utterance but at stake is not just the trinity as the capital teaching of the christian faith if that were not enough to be concerned about the essence of true christian experience is also greatly affected by our understanding of how the triune god is in himself and how he acts in himself for according to the new testament the essence of the believers life and living is the extension of the triune god s mutual indwelling and mutual working together as one within them thus at another level this book is a reaction to a merely moral and ethical view of the christian life because again the writers of the new testament present the christian life more profoundly as the believers incorporation of the triune god who lives and operates within them the content of this book is a careful consideration of the incorporation of the triune god in himself and with his believers as evidenced textually in the new testament particularly the gospel of john through the epistle of jude

Tentmaking

would it surprise you to know that new testament scholars missiologists and church planting authorities cannot agree on how to define tentmaking whether or not the church should be practicing it today or even why paul did it in the first place it s true in tentmaking the widespread confusion and overall disagreement within the church regarding paul s self support are exposed commonly held assumptions are removed from their entrenched positions and myths are debunked in their place tentmaking offers an unadorned yet powerfully convincing presentation of paul s own self disclosed reasons for intentionally selecting to support himself in some ministry contexts but not others this well researched book provides answers to crucial questions that currently surround tentmaking as well as a practical guide intended to lead to the recovery of biblical tentmaking within the church readers who pick up this book should be prepared to embark on an engrossing journey that will reward them with clarity on the often misunderstood topic of paul s tentmaking

the potter and his clay how to know god s present purpose for your life now starting well and finishing strong the christian grace race written from a heart to help all believers discover and know the perfect will of god for their lives some who have discovered his will have been sidetracked and detoured from it in a marathon it is not how you start the race but how you finish this book is a study of the process in making clay pottery in ancient times and how in allegorical language it relates to the spiritual journey of our christian life today the ultimate goal of this book is to give scriptural guidelines on how to help you finish the grace race and complete god s destiny for your life your message is so timely and powerful wow i pray that your book will make it into the hands and hearts of everyone who so desperately needs to read it i agree with you that we are living in somewhat of a paradoxical time sometimes it seems as though everyone has given up on revival and living for jesus yet we also live in a time where so many hunger for more your book sounds an alarm while simultaneously raising a banner of hope for those who think true christianity has done nothing but disintegrate michael and kathy from plano tx alan burns is founder and director of rivers of life outreach ministries he is involved in conducting training and equipping conferences internationally alan is the author of two other books on
