state conflicts managing these challenging situations requires immediate actions suspension of ordinary procedures decision making under uncertainty and coordinated action in other words challenging situations put high demands on the command and control c2 capability to strengthen the capability of c2 it is vital to identify the

prerequisites for effective coordination and direction within the domain of interest this thesis explores c2 capability and effectiveness in three domains interorganizational crisis management military command and control and cyber defence operations the thesis aims to answer three research questions 1 what constitutes c2 capability 2 what constitutes c2 effectiveness and 3 how can c2 effectiveness be assessed the work was carried out as two case studies and one systematic literature review the main contributions of the thesis are the identification of perspectives of c2 capability in challenging situations and an overview of approaches to c2 effectiveness assessment based on the results of the three studies six recurring perspectives of capability in the domains studied were identified interaction collaboration direction and coordination relationships situation awareness resilience and preparedness in the domains there are differences concerning which perspectives that are most emphasized in order obtain c2 capability c2 effectiveness is defined as the extent to which a c2 system is successful in achieving its intended result the thesis discusses the interconnectedness of performance and effectiveness measures and concludes that there is not a united view on the difference between measures of effectiveness and measures of performance different approaches to effectiveness assessment were identified where assessment may be conducted based on one specific issue in relation to a defined goal for a c2 function or using a more exploratory approach on the 25th january 2015 the greek people voted in an election of historic importance not just for greece but potentially all of europe the radical party syriza was elected and austerity and the neoliberal agenda is being challenged suddenly it seems as if there is an alternative but what the eurozone is in a deep and prolonged crisis it is now clear that monetary union is a historic failure beyond repair and certainly not in the interests of europe s working people building on the economic analysis of two of europe s leading thinkers heiner flassbeck and costas lapavitsas a candidate standing for election on syriza s list against the troika is the first book to propose a strategic left wing plan for how peripheral countries could exit the euro with a change in government in greece and looming political transformations in countries such as spain this major intervention lays out a radical anti capitalist programme at a critical juncture for europe the final three chapters offer a detailed postmortem of the greek catastrophe explain what can be learned from it and provide a possible alternative against the troika is a practical blueprint for real change in a continent wracked by crisis and austerity this title contains an access code to access the online material in case you face any difficulty email at ebooks support aiets co in 21 online jee main year these tests as practice sets the information and communications for development series looks in depth at how information and communications technologies are affecting economic growth in developing countries this new report the fourth in the series examines the topic of data driven development or how better information makes for better policies the objective is to assist developing country firms and governments in unlocking the value of the data they hold for better service delivery and decision making and to empower individuals to take more control of their personal data we are undoubtedly experiencing a data revolution in which our ability to generate process and utilize information has been magnified many times over by the machines that we increasingly rely upon this report is about how the data revolution is changing the behavior of governments individuals and firms and how these changes affect the nature of development economic social and cultural how can governments extract value from data to improve service delivery in the same way that private companies have learned to do for profit is it feasible for individuals to take ownership of their own data and to use it to improve their livelihoods and quality of life can developing country firms compete with the internet majors on their own turf and be even more innovative in their use of data to serve local customers better though the report is aimed primarily at government policy makers it also has great relevance for individuals concerned about how their personal data is used and how the data revolution might affect their future job prospects for private sector firms particularly those in developing countries the report suggests how they might expand their markets and improve their competitive edge for development professionals the report provides guidance on how they might use data more creatively to tackle long standing global challenges such as eliminating extreme poverty promoting shared prosperity or mitigating the effects of climate change the report s chapters explore different themes associated with the supply of data the technology underlying it and the demand for it an overview chapter focuses on government use of data and presentation of definitions part i of the report then looks at the supply side of the data sector with chapters on data connectivity and capacity where data comes from how it is stored and where it goes and data technology specifically big data analytics and artificial intelligence and how this is contributing to development part ii looks at the sector s demand side with a chapter on people s use of data and another that examines how firms use digital platforms in the data economy and how that contributes to competitiveness part iii brings together the policy implications for developing country stakeholders with a chapter considering government policies for data including data protection and privacy a closing data notes appendix looks at statistical indicators associated with the use of data and presents the 2018 update of the digital adoption index dai a composite indicator introduced in the 2016 world development report
