cakes doodinkus jacklegs and so many other american regionalisms david wolman author of righting the mother tongue wicked good words is a collection of words and phrases from places across the united states organized by region and peppered with engaging sidebars it s a uniquely american road trip you ll discover in ohio that titillating talk about a four way is all about a type of chili when you rush the growler in appalachia you re filling your lunch pail with beer a frog strangler in the south will send you running for cover it s a heavy rain in louisiana and texas someone caught pirooting is nosing around in the northwest something that s spendy is too expensive a skeeter hawk darning needle snake feeder spindle ear sewer needle snake doctor and stinger all refer to the same thing a mosquito practical and tangible guide to the international legal standards on the aim and content of education using article 29 of the convention on the rights of the child crc as a reference point the book provides a detailed legal analysis of international minimum standards on how a child should be educated the book adopts a traditional legal positivist approach to explore the scope and nature of international law on the aims of education it is divided into three main questions 1 what is international law and are the aims of education valid legal obligations 2 what is the content and scope of these laws on the aims of education 3 what are the obligations of authorities and teachers to respect and fulfil the law the book is unique as the first book on international law dedicated separately to the aims of primary and secondary school education not only focusing on human rights education this book will be of great interest for teacher students scholars and post graduate students in the field of education it will also appeal to legal scholars as well as policymakers this book analyzes the social and contextual causes of suicide the existential and philosophical reasons for committing suicide and the prevention strategies that modern fictional literature places at our disposal they go through the review of modern fictional literature in the american and european geographical framework following the rationales that modern literature based on fiction can serve the purpose of understanding better the phenomenon of suicide its most inaccessible impulses and that has the potential to prevent suicide from the turn of the 20th century to the present debates over the meaning of suicide became a privileged site for efforts to discover the reasons why people commit suicide and how to prevent this behavior since the french sociologist and philosopher Emile durkheim published his study suicide a study in sociology in 1897 a reframing of suicide took place giving rise to a flourishing group of researchers and authors devoting their efforts to understand better the causes of suicide and to the formation of suicide prevention organizations a century later we still keep on trying to reach such an understanding of suicide the nature and nuances of its modern conceptualization to prevent suicidal behaviors the question of what suicide means in and for modernity is not an overcome one suicide is an act that touches all of our lives and engages with the incomprehensible and unsayable since the turn of the millennium a fierce debate about the state s role in assisted suicide has been adopted beyond the discussion as to whether physicians should assist in the suicide of patients with unbearable and hopeless suffering the scope of the suicidal agency is much broader concerning general people wanting to die □□□ in march 2020 the covid 19 pandemic swept the world causing physical emotional economic and social upheaval in every part of the globe it also catalyzed a renewed interrogation by music education faculty in higher education of philosophies and practices that had long gone unexamined music education on the verge stories of pandemic teaching and transformative change is a collection of narratives by music teacher educators describing

how they responded to the disruption of the covid 19 pandemic with and for their students through these stories the authors step back and reflect on the events challenges triumphs and innovations discovered as they prepared the next generation of music educators in this time of crisis they tell stories of reexamining old frameworks discovering new affordances of technologies humanizing pedagogy deepening culturally responsive and sustaining experiences and creating space for democratic practices each chapter offers examples of innovative music pedagogy that can be adapted and applied by music educators and music teacher educators with their students collectively they paint a picture of possibilities challenging music teacher educators and educators in all fields to seek out openings and pursue pedagogies of change as we move forward into a post pandemic world of all the human emotions anger is probably the most misunderstood why is it important to understand anger at all rage through the centuries revolutions wars civil rights independence from colonial rule political unrest black lives matter storming the us capitol has shown that anger can be a catalyst for change it can also be a tool employed in fear by those resisting reform or trying to quell protests or advancements by other people perhaps you too have experienced the rise of rage within yourself you might be fed up with feeling angry and not having any way to express it you don t want to hold it all inside anymore and you are done being everybody s doormat but counselor and psychotherapist julie christiansen says that if we take time to examine the belief systems that fuel our anger we can free ourselves from the bondage that anger puts us in learning how to make it work for us instead when we map out our anger we can learn to manage it with a ten step program full of practical exercises such as defining your anger style understanding your belief systems releasing residual anger and more the rise of rage will help you identify the ten anger styles develop tools for resolving anger at work give effective feedback and criticism listen more effectively with a view to deepening connection enhance communication in all manner of relationships harness the power of forgiveness and acceptance communicate effectively with angry people embrace this journey of self discovery with the rise of rage to learn what real anger is what real forgiveness looks like and which safe effective and successful anger resolution tools work best for you postmodern metanarratives investigates the relationship between cinema and literature by analyzing the film blade runner as a postmodern work that constitutes a landmark of cyberpunk narrative and establishes a link between tradition and the post modern the experimental book object shows why and how books matter in the 21st century digital and audio platforms are commonplace and other fields of art beyond literature have increasingly embraced books and publication as their medium of choice nevertheless the manifold book object persists and continues to inspire various types of experimentation this volume sets forth an unprecedented approach where literary and media theory are entangled with design practitioners artistic research and process descriptions by probing the paradigm of the codex this collection of essays focuses on historical and contemporary experimentation that has challenged what books are and could be from the perspectives of materiality mediation and visual and typographic design investigations into less studied areas and cases of performativity demonstrate what experimental books do by interacting with their systemic and cultural environments the volume offers a multifaceted and multidisciplinary view of the book object the book design and publishing processes and their significance in the digital age
