The Communication of Hate

the aesthetics of hate examines the writings of a motley collection of interwar far right intellectuals showing that they defined frenchness in racial gendered and sexual terms a broad ambitious cultural and intellectual history the book offers a provocative reinterpretation of a topic that has long been the subject of controversy in works infused with rhetorics of abjection disgust and dissolution such writers as maulnier brasillach céline and blanchot imagined the nation through figures deemed illegitimate or inferior jews colonial subjects homosexuals women sanos argues that these intellectuals offered an aesthetics of hate reinventing a language of far right nationalism by appealing to the realm of beauty and the sublime for political solutions by acknowledging the constitutive relationship of antisemitism and colonial racism at the heart of these canonical writers nationalism this book makes us rethink how aesthetics and politics function how race is imagined and defined

how gender structured far right thought and how we conceive of french intellectualism and fascism
