is a potential destination in south asia exhibiting a steady growth in its economy along with socio cultural developments with a population of over 170 million the country possesses significant possibilities in domestic tourism this book explicates that increasing number of upper social classes along with their affordability to spend on tourism and leisure activities has recalled attention for the development of this emerging industry this book comprehensively examines the overall tourism and hospitality contexts in bangladesh under the lens of current policy and administrative frameworks in so doing the contribution of tourism and hospitality industry has been highlighted in the economy of bangladesh as a means to creating employment opportunities further the book addresses that contributions remain uneven and distributed improperly and to date
