Many Lands and Many People 1875 global seawater levels are rising and the low lying coasts of the north sea basin are amongst the most vulnerable in europe in our current moment of environmental crisis the north sea coasts are literary arenas in which the challenges and concerns of the anthropocene are being played out this book shows how the fragile landscapes around the north sea have served as bellwethers for environmental concern both now and in the recent past it looks at literary sources drawn from the countries around the north sea denmark germany the netherlands and england from the mid nineteenth century onwards taking them out of their established national and cultural contexts and reframing them in the light of human concern with fast changing and hazardous environments the six chapters serve as literary case studies that highlight memories of flood disaster and recovery attempts to engineer the landscape into submission perceptions of the landscape as both local and global and the imagination of the future of our planet this approach which combines environmental history and ecocriticism shows the importance of cultural artefacts in understandings of and responses to environmental change and advocates for the importance of literary studies in the environmental humanities this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the environmental humanities including eco criticism and environmental history as well as anyone studying literature from the germanic philologies

The Heart 2010 are you a human do you have a mind then this book is for you a wonderfully entertaining overview of all of psychology by one of its greatest experts like having the mind's complexities untangled by a witty eloquent and deeply knowledgeable friend oliver burkeman really wonderful hugely readable derren brown this book is a gem robert sapolsky nothing is more familiar and yet less understood than the human mind it defines the experience of being human and yet its workings contain some of the deepest mysteries ever encountered written by one of the world's greatest teachers of psychology the human mind provides a masterful and riveting guide to all that we have learned since modern science began probing those mysteries it will illuminate everything you think and feel everything you say and do everything that makes you you i don't remember the last time i was this excited about a psychology related book the human mind is everything a reader wants and will delight you dr sophie mort aka dr soph an up to the minute and comprehensive journey through what it means to be human new scientist the story of the human mind as told by psychology's best storyteller fantastic daniel gilbert author of stumbling on happiness perhaps the wittiest most captivating overview of the field of psychology to date jennifer senior author of all joy and no fun Icons of Dissent 2019-07-01 equal parts courtroom drama intellectual journey and character study chilling effect is marianne wesson's most provocative lucinda hayes mystery to date when attorney lucinda hayes reluctantly agrees to represent the mother of a brutally slain child she must convince the court that the makers of a pornographic film are liable for the murder as the case unfolds lucinda calls upon all her personal strength and legal talent facing down her own ghosts as well as the powerful entertainment industry's star lawyers in chilling effect wesson affirms the power of free speech to inspire the best and the worst human behavior and explores the tension between freedom and accountability

The Czar, His Court and People 2018-03-23 decision making is one of the most important activities in both our professional and our private lives today the literature on the subject has grown considerably over the last fifty years and it now covers many different approaches to the subject these approaches range from that of creating a mathematical model of the decision situation under consideration as in operations research and other forms of mathematical decision analysis to those that are based on human and organizational behavior recently those working in the field have begun to combine approaches to the study of decision situations that arise in organizations in our personal lives and in the communities in which we live this book is an attempt to assist those concerned with decision making to work with this combination of approaches in the past decision problems have been considered according to the conditions under which they arise and to some extent in terms of the approaches available for their resolution writers on the subject who are mathematically oriented have devised a method of classifying decisions based on the type of mathematics that they suggest be used in the resolution of the problems this approach leads to the division of decision situations into the categories of certainty uncertainty risk and competition deterministic models available in operations research have then been offered as the means of treating decision situations in the category of certainty

Saving the Human Race 2016-03-11 for my part i travel not to go anywhere but to go i travel for travel's sake the great affair is to move robert louis stevenson in travels with a donkey few of us have the panache to put in our papers free ourselves from our desks and take off on a half year long trip along the coastal necklace of peninsular india this richly flavoured travelogue combines adventure serendipity food and sheer joie de vivre the narrative irresistibly draws us in as benevolent observers of the many facets and foibles of humanity living out of a backpack in budget lodgings and eating bananas as a staple only add to the heady challenges that stimulate the spirit of wanderlust of this maverick explorer the tour diary starting from the remote north western coastal tip and climaxing rather precariously way above sea level at the potentially sinister indo tibetan border is an engrossing chronicle of discoveries about the desires views tribulations joys and sheer zest for living of the teeming millions of india thrown in for good measure in a refreshingly tongue in cheek style are recipes for some of the gastronomic delights offered in the places traversed itinerant sidelights about people of all classes and creeds fishermen seafarers rickshaw drivers priests salesmen radicals typical and atypical families and all the rest create a colourful kalaidoscope that is quintessentially india this book is as enjoyable and energising as a good cup of chai
