Metaphysics 2011-09-06 george orwell is sometimes read as being disinterested in if not outright hostile to philosophy yet a fair reading of orwell s work reveals an author whose work was deeply informed by philosophy and who often revealed his philosophical sympathies orwell said things of ethical significance but he also affirmed and defended substantive ethical claims about humanism well being normative ethics free will and moral responsibility moral psychology decency equality liberty justice and political morality george orwell the ethics of equality avoids a narrow reading of orwell that considers only a few of his best known works and instead considers the entirety of his corpus contending that there are ethical commitments discernible throughout work that ground some of his best known pronouncements and positions while he is often read as a humanist egalitarian and socialist too little attention has been paid to the nuanced versions of those doctrines that he endorsed and to those philosophical sympathies that led him to embrace them george orwell the ethics of equality is the first monograph written by a philosopher that offers a reading of orwell informed by historical and contemporary philosophy and promises to better

our understanding of him and his work

George Orwell 2023 the social status of dogs has changed dramatically in the past 75 years today most dog owners and small animal veterinarians consider companion canines to be members of their families and communities however the attitudes of some dog owners concerning their responsibilities to their dogs and many of the laws that regulate dog ownership and veterinary medical practice largely reflect the human canine relationship and ethical norms of an earlier era this incongruity leads to unmet needs for companion canines and high levels of stress for many veterinary clinicians this book presents arguments for human responsibilities to companion canines a detailed analysis of what those responsibilities entail and the professional ethical standards and laws needed to ensure that responsibilities are met a new moral framework the custodial property framework is created for the care and medical treatment of companion canines and is grounded in a detailed analysis of the responsibilities of care generated by the relationship we have with our best friends

The Ethics of Canine Care 2023-06-21 in this book authors engage in an interdisciplinary discourse of theory and practice on the concept of personal conviction addressing the variety of grey zones that mark the concept bias belief and conviction in an age of fake facts discusses where our convictions come from and whether we are aware of them why they compel us to certain actions and whether we can change our convictions when presented with opposing evidence which prove our personal convictions wrong scholars from philosophy psychology comparative literature media studies applied linguistics intercultural communication and education shed light on the topic of personal conviction crossing disciplinary boundaries and asking questions not only of importance to scholars but also related to the role and possible impact of conviction in the public sphere education and in political and cultural discourse by taking a critical look at personal conviction as an element of inquiry within the humanities and social sciences this book will contribute substantially to the study of conviction as an aspect of the self we all carry within us and are called upon to examine it will be of particular interest to scholars in communication and journalism studies media studies philosophy and psychology the open access version of this book has been made available under a creative commons attribution non commercial no derivatives 4 0 license taylorfrancis com books oa edit 10 4324 9781003187936 bias belief conviction age fake facts anke finger manuela wagner
