the wars of the roses turned england upside down between 1455 and 1485 four kings including richard iii lost their thrones more than forty noblemen lost their lives on the battlefield or their heads on the block and thousands of the men who followed them met violent deaths as they made their way in a disintegrating world the paston family in norfolk family were writing letters about politics about business about shopping about love and about each other including the first valentine using these letters the oldest surviving family correspondence in english helen castor traces the extraordinary history of the paston family across three generations blood roses tells the dramatic moving and intensely human story of how one family survived one of the most tempestuous periods in english history longlisted for the samuel johnson prize in 2005 and winner of the english association s beatrice white prize in 2006
