using reconstrutive ideas available in classical indian original works this book makes a departure in the style of modern writings on indian moral philosophy it presents indian ethics in an objective secular and wherever necessary critical manner as a systematic down to earth philosophical account of moral values virtues rights and obligations it thereby refutes the claim that indian philosophy has no ethics as well as the counter claim that it transcends ethics it demonstrates that moral living proves that the individual his society and the world are really real and not only taken to be real for behavioral purposes as the advaitins hold the self is amoral being a non agent moksa is not a moral value and the karmic theory because of involving belief in rebirth does not fuarantee that the doer of an action is also the experiencer of its results contrary to what is commonly held and indian ethics can sustain itself even if such notions are dropped rajendra prasad calls indian ethics organismic because along with ethical concerns it also covers issues related to professions politics administration sex environment etc therefore in one format it is theoretical and applied normative and metaethical humanistic and non humanistic etc of course within the limits of the then cognitive enquiry the present book aims at clarifying various aspects of indian philosophy by applying concepts used in text science towards their analysis text science attempts to establish universal rules which apply to all forms of human expression if we regard all human expression including behaviour as communication it contains a meaning system whether it has the form of language or not the human expression may be classified as language figure body action and so forth we consider all these forms of expression to be texts for which there must apply universal rules the aim of text science is to explain how these rules function throughout various types of texts and thus provide a better understanding of human behaviour here the direction of analysis is from context to text it is also possible to move from the text it is also possible to move from text to context we can arrive at a new context from texts such as commentaries which context cannot be discovered through reading only one of those texts such a context will certainly help us coherently interpret other texts related to the texts the concept of context and these two directions of analysis may not be necessarily new tools to scholars of indian studies who often adopt this method unconsciously however we aim to use this method consciously here it is an underlying principle of this book that in order to understand texts written in sanskrit or other languages we need to turn our attention towards factors outside of them such as information provided by other areas of study which factors we call context
