Correspondence between S. T. W. ... and the Hon. J. Sherman, ... concerning the arrest of Members of the Maryland Legislature, and the Mayor and Police Commissioners of Baltimore in 1861 1863 in the course of ministering to a member of his congregation things go terribly wrong and pastor pratt is arrested on suspicion of a very serious crime a whole catalogue of misery and despair is subsequently opened plunging everyone involved to depths of pain and confusion they hardly knew existed as those involved struggle for their sanity can di penny and the eccentric dr emily help them find any light at the end of a long dark tunnel what exactly happened in the chapel how do they begin to make sense of a series of uncanny coincidences connected to the pastor how could one man be capable of such hypocrisy and unrelenting callousness then there is the secretive mrs veronica pratt about whom there is much concern with good cause although written with a degree of humour the account of a service in pastor pratt s chapel is hilarious the author has nevertheless tackled serious issues with intelligence sensitivity and insight

The Arrest of Pastor Pratt 2016-03-29 now presented in two convenient volumes the sixth edition of berlingieri on arrest of ships is an invaluable source of information detailing the claims in respect of which a ship may be arrested the conditions for obtaining an order of arrest the need for a security the manner by which the ship that has been arrested may be released the possibility of a multiple arrest and the jurisdiction on the merits focused on the 1999 arrest convention volume ii provides a unique thorough and updated commentary analysing each provision with reference to its interpretation in a significant number of states parties moreover the original comments have been reviewed on the basis of the travaux préparatoires of the convention which the author has collected and arranged under each article in addition to this the travaux préparatoires are now included as a new and important appendix to the volume written by a renowned expert in the field and analysing the various conventions relating to the arrest of ships in an article by article and paragraph manner this book is a useful reference tool for practitioners as well as academics and post graduate students of maritime law

Berlingieri on Arrest of Ships Volume II 2016-11-18 the arrest conventions signed in 1952 and 1999 play a fundamental role in the worldwide enforcement of maritime claims arrest of ships is one of the most distinctive features of international maritime law it provides a powerful efficient and effective means of enforcing maritime claims in rem obtaining sufficient asset security and preserving property pending substantive proceedings ship arrest is however also a draconian power that cuts across property rights and can cause considerable commercial harm to shipowning interests this book provides thematic and comparative analysis from leading international commentators on the most significant legal and policy issues including practical problems arising from the arrest convention texts as well as the direct implementation or indirect translation of the arrest conventions into domestic legal systems it critically analyses the political and historical development of the conventions explores the key concepts underpinning the arrest convention frameworks and considers the future of ship arrest

The Arrest Conventions 2019-07-25 on 3 april 2011 as he was boarding a flight to taipei ai weiwei was arrested at beijing airport advised merely that his travel could damage state security he was escorted to a van by officials after which he disappeared for 81 days the play depicts the story of his detention and the relationships he develops with his captors it is a portrait of the artist in extreme conditions and also an affirmation of the centrality of art and freedom of speech in civilised society

1823 the procedure committee has at the speaker's request considered the house's present practice in requiring police forces to notify the speaker of the arrest of any member the house requires the speaker on receipt of a notification of arrest to notify the house accordingly by laying the notification on the table and causing it to be published in the votes and proceedings the practice is connected to the house's claim now purely symbolic to the privilege of freedom from arrest which itself derives from the principle that the house must have first claim on the attendance of its members this claim has never been allowed to interfere with the administration of criminal justice the committee considers that the practice of notification should be retained since it is linked to the house's assertion of its right to the attendance and participation of its members and the house must be in a position to be able to ensure the attendance of its members should it be required to remove any doubt as to the basis for the requirement the committee invites the house to pass a resolution restating its claim
