Contemporary African Art Since 1980 2009 against the musty stereotypes and prejudices that still consider africa a dark continent full of nameless third world nations always striving but never managing to catch up with the west authentic ex centric positions africa as the source of many of the ideas associated with european modernism from cubism s radical abstraction to 70s performance art and its use of ritual shamanism and magic the influence of african art has long been underap preciated published in conjunction with an exhibition of the same name held to critical acclaim on the fringes of the 2001 venice biennale authentic ex centric offers a glimpse of the ways in which african and african and african diaspora artists have interpreted and translated the aesthetic and social experiences of post colonial africa into new idioms of artistic expression and argues for their proper location in the broad narrative of global conceptualism including work by such artists as maria magdalena campos pons willem boshoff godfried donkor rachid koraichi berni searle and yinka shonibare

Contemporary African Artists 1990 reading contemporary african literature brings together scholarship on critical debates about and examples of reading african literature in all genres poetry fiction and drama including popular culture the anthology offers studies of african literature from interdisciplinary perspectives that employ sociological historical and ethnographic besides literary analysis of the literatures it has assembled critical and researched essays on a range of topics theoretical and empirical by renowned critics and theorists of african literature that evaluate and provide examples of reading african literature that should be of interest to academics researchers and students of african literature culture and history amongst other subjects some of the essays examine authors that have received little or no attention to date in books on recent african literature these essays provide new insights and scholarship that should broaden and deepen our understanding and appreciation of african literature

Contemporary African Art 1970 all over africa an explosion in cultural productions of various genres is in evidence whether in relation to music song and dance drama poetry film documentaries photography cartoons fine arts novels and short stories essays and auto biography the continent is experiencing a robust outpouring of creative power that is as remarkable for its originality as its all round diversity beginning from the late 1970s and early 1980s the african continent has experienced the longest and deepest economic crises than at any other time since the period after the second world war interestingly however while practically every indicator of economic development was declining in nominal and or real terms for most aspects of the continent cultural productions were on the increase out of adversity the creative genius of the african produced cultural forms that at once spoke to crises and sought to transcend them the current climate of cultural pluralism that has been produced in no small part by globalization has not been accompanied by an adequate pluralism of ideas on what culture is and or should be nor informed by an equal claim to the production of the cultural packaged or not globalization has seen to movement and mixture contact and linkage interaction and exchange where cultural flows of capital people commodities images and ideologies have meant that the globe has become a space with new asymmetries for an increasing intertwinement of the lives of people and consequently of a greater blurring of normative definitions as well as a place for re definition imagined and real as this book contemporary african cultural productions has done researching into african culture and cultural productions that derive from it allows us among other things to enquire into definitions explore historical dimensions and interrogate the political dimensions to presentation and representation the book therefore offers us an intervention that goes beyond the normative literary and cultural studies main foci of race difference and identity notions which while important in themselves might without the necessary historicizing and interrogating result in a discourse that rather re inscribes the very patterns that necessitate writing against this book is an invaluable compendium to scholars researchers teachers students and others who specialize on different aspects of african culture and cultural productions as well as cultural centers and general readers

Authentic, Ex-centric 2001 across africa new collectivities are shifting the terms within which access to economic opportunity social belonging and political agency have historically been understood recent years have seen powerful waves of civic mobilization sweep across the continent less prominent articulations of contemporary political desire have also been percolating through the diffuse experiences of the african everyday as differential access to global capitalism and its promises folds into modes of subjection and escape that are hard to predict those who exercise power find ever more ways of guarding the borders and memberships of privileged groups this book turns to the critically entangled terms of affect and access as a basis for exploring emergent orientations in the field of african cultural theorizing it pays especial attention to scholarship engaging with the multifaceted coordinates of political and social participation where complex assemblages of affective attachment exchange and realignment work in concert with demands for socio political and economic forms of access this book was originally published as a special issue of safundi
