The Science of Why, Volume 5 2020-11-10 this study explores the interrelationship between spatiality and subjecthood in the work of stéphane mallarmé guillaume apollinaire maurice maeterlinck and alfred jarry concerned with various modes of poetry and drama it also examines the cross pollination that can occur between these modes focusing on a range of core texts including mallarmé's igitur and un coup de dés apollinaire's zone and various of his calligrammes maeterlinck's early one act plays l'intruse les aveugles and intérieur and jarry's ubu roi and césar antechrist the poetic and dramatic practices of these four authors are assessed against the broader cultural and philosophical contexts of the fin de siècle the fin de siècle witnessed a profound epistemological shift the newtonian cartesian paradigm increasingly challenged throughout the nineteenth century was largely dismantled with ramifications beyond physics philosophy and psychology chapter 1 introduces three foundational notions newtonian absolute space the unitary cartesian subject and subject object dualism that were challenged and ultimately overthrown in turn of the century science and art developments in theatre architecture and typographic design are examined against this philosophical backdrop with a view to establishing a diachronic and interdisciplinary framework of the authors in question chapter 2 focuses on the spatial dimension of mallarmé s un coup de dés and apollinaire s calligrammes works which defamiliarise page space by undermining various naturalised conventions of paginal configuration in chapter 3 the notion of liminality is implemented in an analysis of character and diegetic space as constructed in jarry s ubu roi and maeterlinck s one acts chapters 4 and chapter 5 undertake a more abstract investigation of parallel inverse processes the subjectivisation of space and the spatialisation of the subject manifest not only in the works of mallarmé maeterlinck apollinaire and jarry but in the period s poetry and drama more generally
