excerpt from the vision of william concerning piers the plowman in three parallel texts vol 1 together with richard the redeless text i have found it difficult to ensure perfect accuracy in the texts after careful examination of them i here supply what i hope is a tolerably complete list of errors some of them being trivial the most important are the errors in spelling which come first about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works the old english manuscript whose charred and burnt remains are now ms bl cotton otho b xi was written at winchester during the reign of Æthelred partly in the middle of the tenth century and partly about the middle of the first half of the eleventh in its pristine state it contained anglo saxon texts of some importance including a collection of laws unfortunately the manuscript fell victim to the cottonian fire of 1731 and was largely destroyed before the fire however in 1562 otho b xi was transcribed practically in its entirety by the antiquarian laurence nowell whose work formed the basis for the printed edition of the anglo saxon laws contained in william lambarde s archaionomia of 1568 the present edition offers a brief discussion of the laws of the anglo saxons as they survive in manuscripts and printed editions and then concentrates on the work of nowell and lambarde two laurence nowells and at least three nowell transcripts of cotton otho b xi are known to modern scholarship and require consideration before proceeding to an edition of what can be reconstructed of ms bl cotton otho b xi the texts of the law codes known as ii athelstan v athelstan iudex and alfred and ine found originally in ms bl cotton otho b xi are printed from the nowell transcript contained in ms bl additional 43703 while on facing pages the corresponding passages from lambarde s archaionomia are reproduced variants from the other nowell transcripts of the same texts are noted manuscript relations are discussed in an appendix and a select bibliography is offered the importance of the present edition is that it makes it easier to compare the otho b xi text and lambarde s printed version than is possible with felix liebermann s die gesetze der angelsachsen comparison of the nowell and lambarde texts with one another shows that there can be little doubt that lambarde for his archaionomiaused otho b xi or a transcript of it made by nowell comparison of the nowell and lambarde texts with the other extant manuscript and printed versions casts some further light on the relations between the surviving law codes of the anglo saxons
