Modern Hindi Short Story 1974 since their beginnings in the 1930s hindi films and film songs have dominated indian public culture in india and have also made their presence felt strongly in many global contexts hindi film songs have been described on the one hand as highly standardized and on the other as highly eclectic anna morcom addresses many of the paradoxes eccentricities and myths of not just hindi film songs but also of hindi cinema by analysing film songs in cinematic context while the presence of songs in hindi films is commonly dismissed as purely commercial this book demonstrates that in terms of the production process musical style and commercial life it is most powerfully the parent film that shapes and defines the film songs and their success rather than the other way round while they constitute india s still foremost genre of popular music film songs are also situational dramatic sequences inherently multi media in style and conception this book is uniquely grounded in detailed musical and visual analysis of hindi film songs song sequences and films as well as a wealth of ethnographic material from the hindi film and music industries its findings lead to highly novel ways of viewing hindi film songs their key role in hindi cinema and how this affects their wider life in india and across the globe it will be indispensable to scholars seeking to understand both hindi film songs and hindi cinema it also forms a major contribution to popular music popular culture film music studies and ethnomusicology tackling pertinent issues of cultural production multi media and the cross cultural use of music in hindi cinema the book caters for both music specialists as well as a wider audience

the indo-european languages greek and latin etc are rooted in the middle-east mesopotamia not in europe hindi's script came from the aramaic system similar to greek and in the 1800s the british initiated the divisive game of splitting one language in two hindi for the hindus and urdu for the muslims these facts he says have been buried and nearly lost in turgid academic works khan bolsters his hypothesis with copious technical linguistic examples this may spark a revolution in linguistic history urdu hindi an artificial divide integrates the out-of-africa linguistic evolution theory with the fossil linguistics of middle east and discards the theory that sanskrit descended from a hypothetical proto-indoeuropean language and by degeneration created dialects urdu hindi and others it shows that several tribes from the middle east created the hybrid by cumulative evolution the oldest groups austric and dravidian starting 8000 b.c provided the grammar syntax plus about 60% of vocabulary s.k.t added 10% after 1500 b.c and arabic/persian 20-30% after a.d. 800 the book reveals mesopotamia as the linguistic melting pot of sumerian/babylonian/elanite/hittite/hurrian/mitanni etc with a common script and vocabularies shared mutually and passed on to i.e.s.k.t.d.r arabic and then to hindi/urdu in fact the author locates oldest evidence of s.k.t in syria the book also exposes the myths of a revealed s.k.t or hebrew and the fiction of linguistic races i.e. aryan/semitic etc the book supports the one-world concept and reveals the potential of urdu/hindi to unite all genetic elements/races and regions of the indo-pakistan sub-continent this is important reading not only for those interested to understand the divisive exploitation of languages in british-led india's partition but for those interested in the science and history of origin of urdu/hindi and other languages the false claims of linguistic races and creation history of languages and scripts language mythology and racism ancient history and fossil languages british rule and india's partition
