MINI APARTMENTS. LIVING IN LESS THAN 50 M² 2015-09-16 pakistani migrant families in denmark find themselves in a specific ethno national post 9 11 environment where muslim immigrants are subjected to processes of non recognition exclusion and securitization this ethnographic study explores how why and at what costs notions of relatedness identity and belonging are being renegotiated within local families and transnational kinship networks each entry point concerns the destructive productive constitution of family life where neglected responsibilities obligations and trust lead not only to broken relationships but also and inevitably to the innovative creation of new ones by connecting the micro politics of the migrant family with the macro politics of the nation state and global conjunctures in general the book argues that securitization and suspicion launched in the name of integration escalate internal community dynamics and processes of family upheaval in unpredicted ways Small Apartments 2003 in beautifully small sara emslie embraces the positive aspects of living in small spaces and offers design and style solutions to the practical problems associated with limited living space in chapter 1 inspiration sara draws inspiration from truly tiny spaces such as boats and caravans as well as her own home a diminutive workman s cottage in a london suburb in chapter 2 elements of design she discusses how even the most straightforward planning decisions can be complicated by the constraints of small spaces and suggests clever design solutions the third chapter elements of style explores ideas for making compact interiors work through the use of creative styling and decoration in chapter 4 a series of case studies takes a closer look at imaginative treatments for pocket size interiors showcasing a variety of tiny spaces including a terraced two up two down worker s cottage a tiny studio apartment with a clever mezzanine that incorporates a bathroom and a pint sized coastal hideaway

Cruises in Small Yachts and Big Canoes 1883 a spirited and incisive survey of economic geography a world made for money begins with the author stopped at a red light in norman oklahoma observing the landscape of drugstores and banks and for that matter the stoplight and roads themselves bret wallach observes everything i see has been built to make money or at the very least to facilitate making money this he argues is a global phenomenon that nonetheless has occurred only within the past hundred years or so although guidebooks and culture brokers often disparage these landscapes of commerce wallach recipient of a macarthur genius grant argues that we would do well to pay them close attention a world made for money provides a compelling condensed tour of our world from silicon valley to sri lanka from post soviet russia to post apartheid south africa wallach looks at how human beings are buying manufacturing working growing and shipping food and accessing the natural resources to fuel it all these essential facets of daily life propelled by the profit motive represent a transnational force shaping our surroundings and environment in ways that may not always be beautiful or even healthy but that are fundamental to understanding how the world works in the twenty first century wallach examines the relationship between acquisitiveness and landscape reveals surprising contradictions and nuances and provides fresh perspective on politically charged topics such as sprawl deindustrialization and agribusiness

Small and Chic 2008 this volume showcases innovating and exciting trends in interior design for small spaces from concealed storage to the clever use of light and colour the projects will inspire interior designers working with limited space
