to superstition macbeth book struggles with the hags predictions in the depth of his soul but his wife fiercely ambitious never struggles when he is haunted by his imagination she is steadfast preparing everything looking after the details urging him on it is only afterward when he is thoroughly damned coldly vicious that she finds she cannot wash duncan s blood off from her hands among other things this play is the portrait of a good marriage if that is a good marriage can be made in hell over the past year i have branched out in my reading attempting authors and genres that i had not discovered before recently i read serena by ron rash in which the title character is compared to lady macbeth while serena may be ruthless i had never read the play so i could not contrast the two heroines another of my reading goals this year is increasing my reading of classics up until now i had predominantly read modern classics and found a worthy reason to read an older masterpiece so it is without further adieu that i present my take on the bard s macbeth shakespeare penned macbeth around the year 1606 when he was already established as a reputed playwright for this play he chose a contemporary scottish soldier and references the scottish crown within the text
