heartbreaking new novel the girl you left behind are two haunting love stories that of sophie and Édouard lefèvre in france during the first world war and nearly a century later liv halston and her husband david honeymoon in paris takes place several years before the events to come in the girl you left behind when both couples have just married sophie is swept up in the glamour of belle Époque paris but discovers that loving a celebrated artist like Édouard lefèvre brings undreamt of complications following in sophie's footsteps a hundred years later liv after a whirlwind romance finds her parisian honeymoon is not quite the romantic getaway she had been hoping for this enchanting self contained story will have you falling in love with both young brides and with paris then and now and it is the perfect appetizer for the the girl you left behind a spellbinding story of love devotion and passion in the hardest of times bonus includes a sneak peek from the girl you left behind and moyes's previous novel me before you a compilation of love stories and poems from the classical literature and folklore of india set in regions of great natural beauty where kamadeva the god of love picks his victims with consummate ease these stories and lyrics celebrate the myriad aspects of love in addition to relatively well known works like kalidasa's meghadutam and prince ilango adigal's shilappadikaram the collection features lesser known writers of ancient india like damodaragupta eighth century ad whose loves of haralata and dundarasena is about a high born man's doomed affair with a courtesan janna twelfth century whose tale of the glory bearer is extracted here for the story of a queen who betrays her handsome husband for a mahout reputed to be the ugliest man in the kingdom and the sanskrit poets amaru and mayaru seventh century whose lyrics display an astonishing perspective on the tenderness the fierce passion and the playful savagery of physical love also featured are charming stories of hindu gods and goddesses in love and nineteenth century retellings of folk tales from different regions of the country like kashmir punjab maharashtra and rajasthan both passionate and sensuous in its content this book is sure to appeal to the romantic in all of us romance writing explores the changing nature of both the romance genre and the discourse of romantic love from the seventeenth century to the present day indeed it is one of the first studies to approach romantic love as both genre and discourse in more than sixty years faced with the challenge of writing a cultural history for what is commonly understood to be one of life's most universal a historical and cross cultural phenomena lynne pearce has invoked the concept of the gift to calculate love's added value at different cultural historical moments building upon those philosophical traditions which have argued for the powerfully transformative nature of romantic love pearce shows how in the history of literature lovers have utilized its spark to change not only themselves but also their worlds through acts of creativity and heroism the gift of love ranges from the simple gift of a name in the seventeenth century through notions of immortality self sacrifice and selfhood in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries through to the liberating temporal and spatial dislocations of the postmodern age the opening chapter the alchemy of love also undertakes an in depth engagement of the changing nature and meaning of romantic love providing a judicious blend of close reading and cultural history romance writing will be essential reading for undergraduate students as well as postgraduates and scholars working in the field while also offering much of interest to the general reader how we met celebrates the surprising sweet funny and downright weird ways in which people have found love join a who s who of writers as they share their sometimes romantic sometimes bittersweet true stories of finding the love of their life the one they re with or the one that got away from the romance of 1950s sydney to the sleazy bars of 1990s saigon from outback australia to central london from barbarella boots to barefoot pirates from love at first sight to love the second time around how we met is naughty nice and all things in between romanticism is taught at universities across the globe and is considered integral to the study of british and european literature this book written by leading academics presents innovative practical approaches to teaching traditional and newer aspects of the curriculum and is essential to anyone teaching romanticism at university level art book on a famous self taught folk artist from the southern us who uses a chain saw to make critter sculptures and paints dramatic animal paintings
