powerless as well as disinclined to interfere with or alter to the full length of my capabilities it perhaps will be considered by some people that i have gone outside of written laws to such a contention my answer is that i have always been true to my own conscience which is the known and yet the unknown quantity we all must reckon with and to my country in the transportation of arms with which to further fights for freedom or fortune i have flown many flags i had no strictly legal right to fly over ships that were not what they pretended to be nor what their papers indicated them to be but never have i taken refuge behind the stars and stripes nor have i ever called on an american minister or consular officer to get me out of the successive scrapes with governments but most often with misgovernments into which my warring wanderings have carried me red blooded love of adventure free from any wanton spirit and with the prospect of financial reward always subordinated has been the driving force in all of my encounters with good men and bad with the latter class much in the majority therefore i have only scorn for sympathy and contempt for criticism nor am i troubled with uncanny visions by night nor haunting recollections by day there is just one point in my philosophy which i wish to make clear before the blue peter is hoisted and that is that most of the so called impossibilities we encounter are simply disguised opportunities because they are regarded as impossible they are not guarded against and are therefore comparatively easy of accomplishment when they really are possible as most of them are acceptance of this theory with which every student of the history of warfare will agree will help to explain my ability to do some of the things which will be told of that the thoughtless would promptly put down as impossible the name by which i am known is one of the contradictions of my life save only for my father who sympathized with my adventurous disposition at the same time that he tried to curb it i was at war with my family almost from the time i could talk i am a republican in politics from the fact that they were active supporters of james buchanan and i became a southern sympathizer simply because they were bitterly opposed to slavery when i left home to become an adventurer around the globe i buried my real name and i do not propose to uncover it here or hereafter i am proud though of the fact that my family is descended from a king of burgundy for since reaching years of discretion though i have been as loyal to the united states as any man since 1865 i never have believed in a republican form of government in the course of my activities i have used many names in many lands but that of boynton which had been in the family for years stuck to me until i finally adopted it prefixing a george and a b which really stands for boynton i made it my business to forget as soon as they had served my purpose the different names i took in response to the demand of expediency but i remember that kinneer and henderson were two under which i created some comment on opposite sides of the world reprint of the original first published in 1881 revolt it would be fun a group of revolutionaries would come all wearing white helmets and white armour carrying swords steel maces bombs foreign guns double edged knives with sharp points and spears with hooks they would come to the tutelary god s temple and call out ah q come with us come with us and then i would go with them
