Inside Reading 2009 the suggestion that the new testament contains citations of early christological hymns has long been a controversial issue in new testament scholarship as a way of advancing this facet of new testament research matthew e gordley examines the colossian hymn col 1 15 20 in light of its cultural and epistolary contexts as a result of a broad comparative analysis he claims that col 1 15 20 is a citation of a prose hymn which represents a fusion of jewish and greco roman conventions for praising an exalted figure a review of hymns in the literature of second temple judaism demonstrates that the colossian hymn owes a number of features to jewish modes of praise likewise a review of hymns in the broader greco roman world demonstrates that the colossian hymn is equally indebted to conventions used for praising the divine in the greco roman tradition in light of these hymnic traditions of antiquity the analysis of the form and content of the colossian hymn shows how the passage fits well into a greco roman context and indicates that it is best understood as a quasi philosophical prose hymn cited in the context of a paraenetic letter finally in view of ancient epistolary and rhetorical theory and practice an analysis of the role of the hymn in colossians suggests that the hymn serves a number of significant rhetorical functions throughout the remainder of the letter
