authoritarian states 20th century of the history for the international baccalaureate ib diploma syllabus for the first assessment in 2017 written by experience ib history examiners and teachers it offers authoritative and engaging guidance through the topic to help student s explore the emergence of authoritarian states consolidation and maintenance of power of these states and the aims and results of authoritarian state policies the government s progressive work on tackling violence against women and girls abroad is not translating into its domestic policy despite its violence against women and girls action strategy and the home secretary s personal commitment to the issue the committee warns that failure to provide adequate refuge spaces and specialist services for victims of violence against women and girls demonstrates the difficulty for the government in fulfilling its international obligations under the convention when decisions over commissioning of certain services has been devolved the committee also expresses alarm at the prevalence of violence against women and girls across many cultures in the uk today and heard troubling evidence from many minority groups that represent women with particular needs the portrayal of women as victims of violence is deeply embedded in cultural stereotypes in the depiction of women in the media and in how women are treated in the asylum system this has to stop the committee s recommendations include that schools should play a greater role and include issues of violence against women and girls within the pshe curriculum whilst the government has taken steps to engage with the media and with public awareness campaigns to counteract the sexualised portrayal of women noting that the bbc declined invitations to give evidence to this inquiry the media themselves should do more the government look again at the payment of universal credit to couples because of its concerns that it could put women subject to domestic are positive indications of progress in countries such as ireland portugal and spain but the report euro area crisis an update hl 163 concludes that the eurozone remains weak and vulnerable despite some countries showing signs of recovery the report finds that fundamental weaknesses still exist such as poor growth huge differences in prosperity between member states destructively high levels of unemployment and growing fears of a deflationary spiral these weaknesses leave the eurozone extremely vulnerable to future shocks the committee also repeats its warning to the government that the uk is becoming increasingly isolated as the euro area knits closer together in order to ensure the uk s interests are effectively promoted the government and the bank of england should maintain and develop constructive relationships with the increasingly in this report the liaison committee conducts a brief review of house of lords policy committees in advance of the appointment of those committees in the new parliament the last five years have seen a range of international developments ranging from the growth of radicalisation and fundamentalism to growing concerns around our energy supply and rising aggression from russia the nss must be flexible enough to support contingency planning and in this report the committee recommends that the government produce a classified nss or annex which can be used in government departments to influence planning assumptions for a range of scenarios in its report the committee said that the next nss should look hard at the uk s place within the international order and what strategic thinking should underpin its actions over the next five years it also needs to influence the comprehensive spending review to ensure that the government can make fully informed decisions on security related spending the next nss should set clear objectives for the uk s future place in the world and geopolitical priorities and inform the strategic defence and security review s assessment of the means required to achieve them gaokao essays are an important component of the national college entrance examination gaokao for chinese high session olaf the european anti fraud office was established by the commission in 1999 following the collapse of its predecessor uclaf and its role is to protect the financial interests of the eu and to fight fraud and corruption within the eu s institutions or within individual eu member states its efficiency and effectiveness are currently under review and the commission has brought forward a proposal designed to improve olaf s operational efficiency improve information flows and protect the rights of individuals under investigation the committee s report judges that this proposal is premature and unlikely to enhance olaf s accountability or independence it also notes that the future of olaf has become entwined with the debate over the post of european public prosecutor and that the commission should not allow this to distract its focus from examining how olaf can be made more effective in the fight against fraud the bill was published as hlb 4 session 2004 05 isbn 0108418839 case arose after the daily mirror published in december 2013 articles about lord hanningfield spending short periods of time on the parliamentary estate in july 2013 whilst claiming the daily allowance of 300 following the articles a complaint was made to the commissioner for standards the commissioner for standards undertook an investigation which focused on 11 sitting days in july 2013 when lord hanningfield was on the parliamentary estate for fewer than 40 minutes and claimed 300 for each day the commissioner found that lord hanningfield did not undertake parliamentary work on the days in question and was in breach of the code of conduct the sub committee considered the case and recommended that lord hanningfield be required to repay the 3 300 he wrongly claimed and that he be suspended from the service of the house until the end of the current parliament lord hanningfield appealed but the committee did not uphold the appeal and maintained the original recommendation to pay the 3 300 and be suspended from service of the house the eaw provides for the surrender from one eu member state to another of those accused or convicted of crimes it replaced existing extradition proceedings between member states and was designed to speed up and simplify the transfer of suspected criminals and fugitives under the provisions of the lisbon treaty the uk had the option to opt out of all of the pre lisbon treaty eu justice and home affairs legislation in october 2012 the government confirmed that it would make use of this provision to opt out of approximately 130 measures and that it would seek to opt back into 35 including the eaw on 1 december 2014 the uk s opt out will come into effect though negotiations are underway to extend that deadline on a transitional basis to 7 december if the uk has not opted back in by this date it will no longer be part of the eaw scheme the issue of the uk s opt in and the eaw in particular has become an increasingly political topic and entwined with arguments about the eu more generally the evidence session covered a number of issues relating to the eaw it juxtaposed the two political arguments on this controversial issue by hearing from baroness ludford in favour of opting in and working to improve the legislation and jacob rees mogg mp who opposes the opt in calling for an alternative system that is not coming under the competence of the european union and it remains a matter of uk law this book discusses the manner in which britain s wars which took place between 2000 and 2015 have interacted with the relevant principles of international law and english law for the purpose primarily of considering legal accountability during a debate in the house of lords in 2005 a former chief of the defence staff commented that the armed forces are under legal siege the book will discuss the major legal issues which have arisen ranging from the various votes in parliament to go to war the constitutional relationship between ministers and senior commanders the right under international law to use force the influence of human rights law the role of the courts in england including the coroners courts to the legal regime applying to the conduct of uk military operations it will assess critically whether the armed forces will now have to accept that operations conducted outside the uk are subject to greater legal scrutiny than previously and whether if this is the case it is likely to hinder their future military activities this book will be of great interest to scholars of international law the law of armed conflict military studies and international relations as well as to those with a professional or other interest in the subject matter theme based learning is a way of teaching and learning whereby many areas of the curriculum are connected together and integrated within a theme by referring to the syllabus and hsk chinese proficiency test version 2021 and version 2009 we added more vocabulary and give the hsk classification within each topic the vocabulary are arranged by hsk v2021 levels this will give teachers a guidance for difficulty level and allow students to set priority on the vocabulary they should know to read write or both it will also help a lot for student to do revision combining our 27 years experience in teaching and editing our own materials here is the life saving book called by many students for their exams grab this unique book the committee believes that climate change is and will continue to be one of the most important challenges facing the eu and the world this report examines what the eu is doing about climate change what policies are in place and how they are working chapters cover the international context for eu policy the eu emissions trading scheme transport other policy areas including energy efficiency renewable energy policy nuclear energy waste and agriculture and the eu and the international community the eu adopted a european climate change programme a comprehensive and relevant set of measures but progress has been mixed the report also finds that most member countries have not made significant progress towards their kyoto targets for greenhouse gas reduction it recommends that the eu emissions trading scheme be endorsed by the g8 as a model to be followed throughout the world the lack of action to deal with the effects of aviation on climate change is seen as a major problem that needs to be addressed internationally

Assisted Dying for the Terminally Ill Bill (HL) 2014 the eaw provides for the surrender from one eu member state to another of those accused or convicted of crimes it replaced existing extradition proceedings between member states and was designed to speed up and simplify the transfer of suspected criminals and fugitives under the provisions of the lisbon treaty the uk had the option to opt out of all of the pre lisbon treaty eu justice and home affairs legislation in october 2012 the government confirmed that it would make use of this provision to opt out of approximately 130 measures and that it would seek to opt back into 35 including the eaw on 1 december 2014 the uk s opt out will come into effect though negotiations are underway to extend that deadline on a transitional basis to 7 december if the uk has not opted back in by this date it will no longer be part of the eaw scheme the issue of the uk s opt in and the eaw in particular has become an increasingly political topic and entwined with arguments about the eu more generally the evidence session covered a number of issues relating to the eaw it juxtaposed the two political arguments on this controversial issue by hearing from baroness ludford in favour of opting in and working to improve the legislation and jacob rees mogg mp who opposes the opt in calling for an alternative system that is not coming under the competence of the european union and it remains a matter of uk law

HL 63 - The European Arrest Warrant Opt-In 2014 the rule of law is a fundamental tenet of the united kingdom constitution in the context of the government it means more than simple compliance with the letter of the law it means governing in accordance with constitutional principles the lord chancellor has traditionally had a key role to play both by defending the independence of the judiciary and by ensuring that the rule of law is respected within government the constitutional reform act 2005 substantially changed the office of lord chancellor the lord chancellor is no longer the head of the judiciary or speaker of the house of lords and since 2007 the office has been combined with that of the secretary of state for justice yet the duty of the lord chancellor in relation to the rule of law remains unchanged it has become more difficult for post reform lord chancellors with their wider policy responsibilities more overtly political positions as secretaries of state for justice and their reduced role in relation to the judiciary to carry out this duty in relation to the rule of law whilst responsibility for constitutional change passed to the deputy prime minister in 2010 the committee have heard no evidence that he or any other minister currently takes responsibility for the state of the constitution as a whole the committee concludes that despite significant changes to the office of lord chancellor it still retains important constitutional duties and responsibilities that go beyond those of other ministers and recommends that the office and its associated responsibilities be retained and strengthened with an amended oath

Report of the Royal Commission on Historical Manuscripts 2010-02-10 eu criminal law is perhaps the fastest growing area of eu law it is also one of the most contested fields of eu action covering measures which have a significant impact on the protection of fundamental rights and the relationship between the individual and the state while at the same time presenting a challenge to state sovereignty in the field and potentially reconfiguring significantly the relationship between member states and the eu the book will examine in detail the main aspects of eu criminal law in the light of these constitutional challenges these include the history and institutions of eu criminal law including the evolution of the third pillar and its relationship with ec law harmonisation in criminal law and procedure with emphasis on competence questions mutual recognition in criminal matters including the operation of the european arrest warrant and accompanying measures action by eu bodies facilitating police and judicial co operation in criminal matters such as europol eurojust and olaf the collection and exchange of personal data in particular via eu databases and co operation between law enforcement authorities and the external dimension of eu action in criminal matters including eu us counter terrorism co operation the analysis is forward looking taking into account the potential impact of the lisbon treaty on eu criminal law

Legal Accountability and Britain's Wars 2000-2015 2006-07-06 in this report the european union committee warn that unless the directive on alternative investment funds is compatible with a global regulatory approach it will seriously damage the eu and uk economies the uk government should not agree with the directive unless it is compatible with equivalent legislation in third countries and in particular the united states it is essential to ensure that eu alternative investment fund managers do not lose competitiveness at a global level this is a particular concern for the uk and the city of london which has a large alternative investment fund industry that employed an estimated 40 000 people in 2009 the committee recognise the risk the aggregate activity of hedge funds could cause to financial stability and welcome the principle of eu regulation of the managers the directive has the potential to reduce risk posed by fund managers and be beneficial to the single market and the eu economy as a whole the committee stress that the requirements on provision of information should be proportionate and carefully thought out to ensure supervisors are provided with the relevant data the committee also criticise the one size fits all approach of the directive the directive covers a wide variety of fund managers including hedge funds private equity and infrastructure funds and its detailed requirements must differentiate between types of managers to avoid unwanted outcomes that could restrict the operation of fund managers unnecessarily
