this pointed hard hitting and incisive analysis of germany s economic malaise is hardly calculated to win popular applause in germany hans werner sinn finds that germany s dearest child the welfare state is the cause of its economic problems many germans rely on transfer payments so it is politically unfeasible for politicians to reduce the scope of government spending and correct the distortions it causes however the author argues quite convincingly that the welfare state is simply unsustainable in its current form getabstract recommends this book to anyone interested in the future of germany and for that matter in the future of the modern welfare state
