Isaac Bell may be on the hunt for the greatest monster of all time in the newest action-adventure novel from #1 New York Times bestselling author Clive Cussler. The year is 1911. Chief investigator Isaac Bell of the Van Dorn Detective Agency has had many extraordinary cases before, but none quite like this. He's hired to find a young woman named Anna Pape who ran away from home to become an actress. Bell gets a shock when her murdered body turns up. Instead of vowing to bring the killer to justice, he begins a manhunt which leads him into increasingly more alarming territory. Anna Pape was not alone in her fate. Petite young blond women like Anna are being murdered in cities across America, and the pattern goes beyond the physical resemblance of the victims. There are disturbing similarities about the killings themselves that send a chill through even a man as experienced with evil as Bell. If he is right about his fears, then he is on the trail of one of the greatest monsters of his time.

Juan Cabrillo and the crew of the covert combat ship Oregon have barely escaped a mission on the Congo River when they intercept a mayday from a defenceless boat under fire off the African coast. Cabrillo takes action saving the beautiful Sloane MacIntyre who's looking for a long submerged ship that may hold a fortune in diamonds but what surprises Cabrillo is her story about a crazy fisherman who claims to have been attacked on the open sea by giant metal snakes in the same area. What begins as a snake hunt leads Cabrillo onto the trail of a far more lethal quarry: a deranged militant and his followers who plan to unleash the devastating power of nature itself against all who oppose them. In his latest bestseller Clive Cussler, the Grandmaster of Adventure shows once again that when it comes to page-turning action, he's the man to beat.
