1900 edition with illustrations by charles robinson tales from past times is a collection of eight fairy tales by charles perrault it was first published in paris in 1697 the collection is also known as mother goose's tales the eight tales are the sleeping beauty in the wood little red riding hood bluebeard master cat or puss in boots the fairies cinderella or the little glass slipper riquet with the tuft little thumbing beauty and the beast the benevolent frog princess rossette it is to perrault that we owe our acquaintance with the greater number of good old fashioned fairy tales but an edition of these although it includes such intimate friends of our childhood as blue beard the sleeping beauty and little red riding hood is hardly complete without beauty and the beast a version of this tale by mme le prince de beaumont has therefore been added to this collection it has also been increased space permitting it by the insertion of two tales by mme la comtesse d aulnoy her writings of a less robust class than those of perrault possess in their atmosphere of hidden magic the charm which resides in that special feature of fairyland and the addition of the benevolent frog and princess rossette will not we think be unwelcome to the youthful reader expert translation of Miyazawa's short fiction reflects its full range from the joyful innocent wildcat and the acorns to the cautionary tale the restaurant of many orders to the earthgod and the fox which starts out whimsically before taking a tragic turn.
