Pushing for Midwives 2010-10-22 are the stars of the civil rights firmament yesterday's news in living Black history scholar and activist Manning Marable offers a resounding no with a fresh and personal look at the enduring legacy of such well-known figures as Malcolm X, Martin Luther King Jr., Medgar Evers, and WEB Du Bois. Marable creates a living history that brings the past alive for a generation he sees as having historical amnesia. His activist passion and scholarly memory bring immediacy to the tribulations and triumphs of yesterday and reveal that history is something that happens everyday. Living Black history dismisses the detachment of the codified version of American history that we all grew up with. Marable's holistic understanding of history counts the story of the slave as much as that of the master. He highlights the flesh and blood courage of those figures who have been robbed of their visceral humanity as members of the historical canon. As people comprehend this dynamic portrayal of history, they will begin to understand that each day we, the average citizen, are makers of our own American history. Living Black history will empower readers with knowledge of their collective past and a greater understanding of their part in forming our future.

Revolutionary Poetics 2023-04-15 this book explores the practice of psychotherapy, teaching, and supervision via allegory, metaphor, and myth based upon the author's own extensive teaching and practice. Mark Kunkel takes the reader through a series of vignettes that are windows not only into reality but also into the soul. The author's approach reflects his vocational commitment to an integration of conceptualization, affective involvement, and application. These allegories, parables, and myths serve to clarify and open important issues in teaching psychotherapeutic and clinical
