4 tips for making wise decisions 6 steps for interpreting the bible 7 questions for recognizing intentional sins 4 tips for finding time to pray discipleship is the buzzword today many believers are contemplating in a fresh way what it means to take the great commission seriously rediscovering discipleship takes the guesswork out of christian maturity based on insights gained from a decade of personally making disciples author and pastor robby gallaty tackles the two hindrances that keep believers from getting involved in making disciples ignorance and uncertainty since many believers have never been personally disciple they have no model to guide them in discipling others their ignorance of the process fuels their uncertainty which leaves them crippled from the start with simple principles that are easy to apply rediscovering discipleship provides readers with the tools to follow the great commission to go and actually make disciples who multiply and make disciples gallaty begins with a brief historical overview of the discipleship ministries of influential theologians preachers and pastors from years past and then identifies roadblocks that hinder believers from becoming disciples before offering a step by step process for readers to immediately get started on the path to effective disciple making be uncommon christians that is eminently holy self denying cross bearing bible everyday christians so james brainerd taylor 1801 1829 encouraged others to be and so he strived to be himself of intense brightness reveals aspects of taylor s uncommon christianity by allowing the princeton and yale educated evangelist to speak for himself by means of forty five selected and edited letters and journal entries of taylor s written from ages fourteen to twenty seven readers will obtain a unique glimpse into the inner workings of an evangelical protestant spirituality that was according to nineteenth century princeton seminary professor samuel miller so uniform that we had only as it were one face and that of intense brightness to behold many modern christians yearn for a deeper spiritual life a relevant relationship with a god who still matters and who thinks we still matter however dallas brauninger tells us we are not good at listening and talking with god what we are good at is hurling questions at the almighty and brauninger says that questions are what we are all about if we are to continue to grow spiritually and so is confession we doubt we fear we stretch to the limits of our patience we wonder if tenacity will prevail or if we will sink we have moments of bliss and ponder anew the mystery of god we wonder and grieve about the world brauninger believes that question and confession are two forms of our prayer and for many of us these conversations with god are as brief and instant as an e mail in holy e mail she inventively casts fourteen sermons based on cycle a lectionary epistle texts in the form of extended e mail messages to god it s as if congregations and pastors were privy to someone s private ponderings that reflect our own spiritual roaming this volume is not only a creative resource for preachers it s also directed to the everyday person in the pew crafted to help hearers connect with god and each other these sermons address universal queries of the human soul by uniting sermon with prayer they re excellent for use as readings for personal meditation brauninger takes the reader on a spiritual journey from the beginning of advent through the transfiguration of our lord this book offers much food for thought as you prepare sermons not only will your mind be stretched your soul will be inspired as you read from the introduction clarence m clip higgins former conference minister nebraska and ohio conferences united church of christ dallas brauninger writes with the discernment of a saint and the ear of a poet these sermons are a joy to read they are a joy because they are crafted by one who is a master with language they are a joy because they track life carefully they are a joy because they expose deep recesses of the soul that light seldom reaches they are a joy because they prompt each of us to reflect on our own faith pilgrimage most of all they are a joy because they affirm god who offers joy not just to some but to all dr
