Skills for Success Listening and Speaking 2015-02-05 the four point series is designed for English language learners whose primary goal is to succeed in an academic setting the series covers the four academic skills of reading writing listening and speaking while providing reinforcement and systematic recycling of key vocabulary and further exposure to grammar issues in order to participate in academic settings. Students need focused activities to develop and then maintain their use of vocabulary and grammar. Each book in the series focuses heavily on vocabulary in particular highlighting between 125-150 key vocabulary items including individual words compound words phrasal verbs short phrases idioms metaphors collocations and longer set lexical phrases. Listening speaking 2 advanced contains six two-part lectures on the topic within a field of academic study applied linguistics ecology psychology geology communication and economics. The lectures range in length from 6 to 9 minutes and are provided on the audio CDs packaged with the book. The exercises practice an array of important academic listening and speaking skills including making presentations and also reinforce vocabulary and reading and writing skills. Students will also practice both short and long extemporaneous speaking including skills like interrupting maintaining the floor and polite adding on to another speaker's thoughts. Comments toward this end: four video scenes available on the companion website model student behavior when working in groups and when asking for clarification and trying to hold the floor by addressing the breadth and depth of listening and speaking tasks required in academic settings. Students will grow confident in areas that build the fluencies needed to succeed in their academic endeavors. Interactive vocabulary activities are also available on the book's companion website.
