Academic Literacy 1996 when Henry Morgentaler, Canada's best known abortion rights advocate, died in 2013, activists and scholars began to reassess the state of abortion in the country. In this volume, some of Canada's foremost researchers challenge current thinking about abortion by revealing the discrepancy between what Canadians believe the law to be after the 1988 Morgentaler decision and what people are experiencing on the ground. Showcasing new theoretical frameworks and approaches from law, history, medicine, women's studies, and political science, these timely essays reveal the diversity of abortion experiences across the country, past and present, and make a case for shifting the debate from abortion rights to reproductive justice.

Instructor's Guide and Answer Keys to Accompany The Holt Handbook 2002. This book contains a full range of questions, including SBAs, SAQs, and EMQs, and answers for the preparation of undergraduate and other exams in the specialty of OB/GYN. In most countries, it also includes the MOCX exam, which is composed of three papers of single-based answers. SBAs are an increasingly popular means of testing in most exams at various levels. As such, this book provides an excellent learning resource for all stages of clinical studies and especially for final year students of medicine in the subject of OB/GYN.
