in this biographical study antonio rigopoulos explores the fundamental role of a hagiographer within a charismatic religious movement in this case the postsectarian cosmopolitan community of the indian guru sathya sai baba the guru s hagiographer narayan kasturi was already a distinguished litterateur by the time he first met sathya sai baba in 1948 the two lived together at the guru s hermitage more or less continuously from 1954 up until kasturi s death in 1987 despite kasturi s influential hagiography sathyam sivam sundaram little scholarly attention has been paid to the hagiographer himself and his importance to the movement in detailing kasturi s relationship to sathya sai baba rigopoulos emphasizes that the hagiographer s work was not subordinate to the guru s definition of himself rather his discourses with the holy man had a reciprocal and reinforcing influence resulting in the construction of a unified canon furthermore kasturi s ability to perform a variety of functions as a hagiographer successfully mediated the relationship between the guru and his followers drawing on years of research on the movement as well as interviews with kasturi himself this book deepens our understanding of this important pan indian figure and his charismatic religious movement

if anyone offers me with devotion a leaf a flower a fruit and water i receive that offered in devotion by the persons whose soul is disciplined lord krishna in the bhagavad gita the various religions of world have different rituals and objects used in worship offerings to the divine vary according to region tradition or availability but only one stream of thought runs through them all like a pure flowing river the predominant idea behind all offerings and prayers and puja rituals of worship is the surrender of oneself to the all powerful absolute and almighty and to seek his blessings protection and forgiveness in our passage through life many of our traditions and rituals of worship have been lost over time victims to the drift of cultures today amidst the rush of modern living our ways of the worship have become practice by rote without the individual understanding the actual meaning of either the object used or the ritual and ultimately the form of worship itself with the loss of this rich legacy of deeper meaning puja is bereft of that special communion with god which all humans desire this accessible and beautifully presented book re acquaints us with the meaning and purpose behind the objects we use in our puja whether at home or in the temple it gently informs and adds meaning and value to that most private of all human practices worship there can be no dispute that the judges of the high courts and the supreme court of india wield tremendous powers however power comes with a price which bestows huge responsibility building on this narrative the book advocates that judges must be made accountable not only in respect of their personal conduct and integrity but also in respect of the judicial verdicts they deliver this book thus critically discusses articles 141 142 and 144 which make the supreme court the most powerful institution in the country and articles 32 and 136 which also confer wide powers on it using these powers the apex court sometimes unmindful of the budgetary and other vital implications tends to pass orders which lack the scope for implementation the book suggests measures to improve the functioning of indian judicial system and save the institutions of justice from turning autocratic and narcissistic
