the tropical paradise of kerala india seventeen year old sita is married off by her parents to an indian engineer in quebec city set against the backdrop of quebec politics it is the story of a courageous woman who breaks with tradition in search in search of peace and love only to be betrayed by the man she first loved and the land she has thought of as hers from 1861 to 1865 the region along the missouri kansas border was the scene of unbelievable death and destruction thousands died millions of dollars in property was lost entire populations were violently uprooted it was here also that some of the greatest atrocities in american history occurred yet in the great national tragedy of the civil war this savage warfare has seemed a minor episode drawing from a wide array of contemporary documents including diaries letters and firsthand newspaper accounts thomas goodrich presents a hair raising report of life in this merciless guerrilla war filled with dramatic detail black flag reveals war at its very worst told in the words of the participants themselves bushwhackers and jayhawkers soldiers and civilians scouts spies runaway slaves the generals and the guerrillas all step forward to tell of their terrifying ordeals hana schank had never given much thought to her wedding or even really imagined herself married so when she found herself suddenly sporting a brand new engagement ring she assumed planning a small low key wedding would be no big deal but soon she finds herself adrift in wedding land a world where all brides are expected to want to look like cinderella where women plan weddings with fantasy butterfly themes where a woman s wedding is without question the happiest day of her life despite her best efforts not to become a bridezilla hana finds herself transformed from a thirty year old woman with a 401 k into a nearly unrecognizable version of herself as she spends weeks crafting save the date cards worries about matching her cocktails to her wedding colors and obsessively reads martha stewart weddings magazine she decides that if she is going to follow traditions like wearing white and walking down the aisle with flowers she at least wants to understand why in her search she turns up interesting wedding facts bridesmaids for instance were originally recruited to confuse evil spirits ultimately she casts a critical eye on the 72 billion wedding industry from the women at wedding websites who cackle over the etiquette missteps of others to wedding magazines that provide checklists of 187 tasks to plan the perfect wedding suggesting that to have anything less is to fail as a bride as a woman as a wife part confessional memoir part social critique a more perfect union chronicles a year in the wedding land
