arts programming for the anthropocene argues for a role for the arts as an engaged professional practice in contemporary culture charting the evolution of arts over the previous half century from a primarily solitary practice involved with its own internal dialogue to one actively seeking a larger discourse the chapters investigate the origin and evolution of five academic field programs on three continents mapping developments in field pedagogy in the arts over the past twenty between 1966 and 1976 american artist nancy spero completed some of her most aggressively political work made at a time when spero was a key member of the anti war and feminist arts activism that burgeoned in the new york art world during the period her works demonstrate a violent and bodily rejection of injustice considering the ways in which anti war and feminist art used emotion as a means to persuade and protest pain and politics in postwar feminist art examines the history of this crucial decade in american art politics through close attention to spero s practice situating her work amongst the activism that defined the era this book examines the ways in which sensation and emotion became political weapons for a generation of artists seeking to oppose patriarchy and war exemplary of the way in which artists were using metaphors of sensation and emotion in their work in 2008 an iraqi artist was waterboarded as performance art in 2010 artists upturned police cars in russia but what exactly do we mean by militant art and aesthetics bringing together the philosophy of art and politics martin lang provides a comprehensive examination of militant art activism its history its advocates and the aesthetic theory behind it protest art is not a new concept and yet this book argues that after the terrorist attacks of 9 11 distinctly 21st century forms of art activism emerged on the one hand these became militant as artists retained belief in the possibility of radical political change through art on the other hand this belief developed in a hostile environment when anti terror legislations reclassified activists and artists as terrorists through first hand interviews and experiences militant aesthetics sheds light on numerous international case studies of modern art activism and the different ways they can be classified as militant many artists and collectives including grupo etcétera in buenos
