if we look closely at the people god used in the old testament we will notice that many of them failed god at some point they messed up badly and god still used them even in the new testament there are people who messed up and god used them to build his kingdom and church god has used and will continue to use auroemessed up people eur and many such are found in the genealogy of jesus and also referenced in hebrews 11 who were broken and really messed up the bible is filled with stories of people that have struggled stumbled and simply failed god god stopped saul paul on the road to damascus and his life would be changed and transformed forever paul easily became the greatest apostle of all time in scriptures there are so many other persons whom god used even though they were broken people like moses david solomon and rahab show us how god is still willing to use us after we have messed up no matter what broken state we are in we are never beyond god's reach we are never so far gone that god can't make us effective for his purposes it is us as human beings who judge each other by our own personal standards and write people off as being unacceptable i messed up badly during my ministry but i am convinced that god still has a purpose for me and wants to continue to use me in ministry he has already been demonstrating this to me in a clear strong and meaningful way when we are broken or feel that we have messed up that is not the time to worry about what others may do or say since other humans can make us feel worse equally it is not the time to give up and turn away from god rather it is the time to draw nearer to god that is when we should seek god all the more for direction clarity help and strength it is the time when we should like david ask god to create a clean heart and renew a steadfast spirit within us and restore us into the joy of his salvation the removal of aboriginal and torres strait islander children from their families gained national attention in australia following the bringing them home report in 1997 however the voices of indigenous parents were largely missing from the report the inquiry attributed their lack of testimony to the impact of trauma and the silencing impact of parents overwhelming sense of guilt and despair a submission by link up nsw commented on aboriginal mothers being unwilling and unable to speak about the immense pain grief and anguish that losing their children had caused them this book explores what happened to aboriginal mothers who had children removed and why they have overwhelmingly remained silent about their experiences identifying the structural barriers to aboriginal mothering in the stolen generations era the author examines how contemporary laws policies and practices increased the likelihood of aboriginal child removal and argues that negative perceptions of aboriginal mothering underpinned removal processes with tragic consequences this book makes an important contribution to understanding the history of the stolen generations and highlights the importance of designing inclusive truth telling processes that enable a diversity of perspectives to be shared
