in this masterful synthesis charalambos bouras draws together material and textual evidence for athens in the middle byzantine period from the mid tenth century to 1204 when it was conquered by crusaders what emerges from his meticulous investigation is an urban fabric surprisingly makeshift in its domestic sector yet exuberantly creative in its ecclesiastical architecture rather than viewing the city as a mere shadow of its ancient past bouras demonstrates how athens remained an important city of the byzantine empire as the seat of a metropolitan home to local aristocracy and pilgrimage destination for those who came to worship at the christian parthenon byzantine athens explores the relationship of the byzantine infrastructure to earlier configurations shedding light on the water supply industrial facilities streets and fortifications of medieval athens and exploring the evidence for the form and typology of byzantine houses thanks to bouras s indefatigable study of all available archaeological reports the first part of the book offers an overall picture of the middle byzantine city the second part presents a fully documented and illustrated catalogue of nearly 40 churches including synthetic treatments of their typology and morphology set in the wider byzantine architectural context finally bouras joins his unrivalled knowledge of the surviving remains and exhaustive scrutiny of the relevant scholarship to offer a historical interpretation of the athenian monuments byzantine athens is a unique achievement that will remain an invaluable compendium of our knowledge of one of the most complex yet relatively unknown byzantine cities uradyn bulag presents a unique study of what it means to be mongolian today mongolian nationalism emerging from a soviet dominated past and facing a chinese threatened future has led its adherents to stress purity in an effort to curb the outside influences on mongolian culture and identity this sort of nationalism views the half the indigenous mongols as pure mongols and other mongol groups as impure this half centrism excites and exploits fears that mongolia will be swallowed by china it stands in opposition to pan mongolism the view that links between mongols of all kinds should be strengthened bulag draws on an abundance of illuminating research findings to argue that mongols are facing a choice between a purist racialized nationalism inherited from soviet discourses of nationalism and a more open adaptive nationalism which accepts diversity hybridity and multiculturalism he calls into question the idea of mongolia as a homogeneous place and people and urges that unity should be sought through acknowledgement of diversity captain james cook s first two voyages of exploration in 1768 71 and 1772 75 had drawn the modern map of the south pacific ocean and had opened the door on the discovery of antarctica these expeditions were the subject of volumes i and ii of dr j c beaglehole s edition of cook s journals the third voyage on which cook sailed in 1776 was directed to the northern hemisphere its objective was the discovery of a northern passage by sea from the pacific to the atlantic ocean the north west passage sought since the 16th century which would have transformed the pattern of world trade the search was to take cook into high latitudes where as in the antarctic his skill in ice navigation was tested sailing north from tahiti in 1778 cook made the first recorded discovery of the hawaiian islands on march 7 he sighted the oregon coast in 44 n the remarkable voyage which he made northward along the canadian and alaskan coasts and through bering strait to his farthest north in 70 nearly disproved the existence of a navigable passage towards the atlantic and produced charts of impressive accuracy returning to hawaii to refit cook met his death in a clash with the natives as tragic as it seems unnecessary dr beaglehole discusses with sympathy and insight the tensions which led cook by then a tired man into miscalculations alien to his own nature and habits the volume and vitality of the records both textual and graphic for this voyage surpass those even for cook s second voyage the surgeons william anderson and david samwell both admirable observers left journals which are also here printed in full for the first time the documentation is completed as in the previous volumes by appendixes of documents and correspondence and by reproductions of original drawings and paintings mainly by John Webber the artist of the expedition in Dr Beagle's words no one can study attentively the records of Cook's third and last v
