Schedule M. Papers and Books 1917 economic and political integration have been a perennial and neuralgic issue in the caribbean agenda this paper draws on the literature on trade growth and regional agreements to discuss the motivation behind the caribbean drive for integration the results obtained so far and what is in stock for the future it argues with the help of descriptive statistics an empirical growth model and a gravity model that the traditional trade related gains from regional integration have been and are bound to be limited because of i the countries high openness ii the limited size of the common enlarged market and iii the countries relatively similar factor endowments it also argues though that gains in the area of non tradables due to economies of scale which cannot be mitigated by trade and openness can be substantial
