The definitive portrait of Paul Bear Bryant the most successful college football coach in history just five weeks after coaching his final football game for the University of Alabama Paul Bear Bryant passed away the impact he had on the state of Alabama and the entire college football world cannot be overstated for twenty five years as the head coach of the Crimson Tide and thirteen years before that at Maryland Kentucky and Texas A.M. Paul Bear Bryant's outsized personality and deep charisma made him the dominant figure in the world of college football turning boys with ordinary talent but extraordinary heart into winners both on the gridiron and off at alabama bear bryant would go on to become the winningest coach of all time achieving the best record in the country in both the 60s and 70s he is the only coach to win national championships with both segregated teams and integrated ones his secret lay not in any strategic brilliance he brought to the game but in his gift for molding individual talents into a cohesive unit that could achieve far more than the sum of its parts would suggest that ability made him a great coach but to many bryant represented more than just a coach he was everything a southern gentleman was supposed to be tough principled charismatic modest in victory yet quick to assume blame in defeat and as mindful of where he d come from as where he was going coach is not only about the man and his tremendous ability to succeed it s also a tribute to the south and the legacy coach bryant left behind in a divisive era bryant gave alabamians something to be proud of and he was simply the greatest football coach of all times
