The official establishment of the State of Israel in May 1948 constituted the realization of the Zionist vision, but military victory left in its wake internal and external survival issues that would threaten this historic achievement for decades to come. The refusal of the international community to recognize the political geographic and demographic results of the war of independence presented israel with a permanent regional security threat while isolating and alienating it in the international arena one of the most formidable problems israeli foreign policy faced was the stance of the christian world toward the new state attitudes ranged from hostility and categorical non recognition by the catholic church through protestant ambivalence to evangelical support cross on the star of david presents the first scholarly analysis based on newly declassified documents of israeli policymaking on this issue uri bialer focuses on the impact that modes of thinking rooted in the historical tradition of jewish christian interactions had on israeli policymakers and concludes that they were not innocent of the perceptions and biases that influenced the christian world s behavior toward israel the result is a fine grained original interpretation of an important dimension of israeli foreign policy from the founding of the state to the 1967 war
