this passionate collection of essays from the leading edge of educational theory and practice demonstrates how families around the world are embracing the philosophy of life learning academics parents and young people describe why non compulsory non coercive active respectful interest led family and community based learning from life is growing in popularity and will displace prescribed curriculum standardized testing and the other regurgitation based relics of our outmoded school system this innovative way of learning through living not only foster intellectual development and academic achievement it allows children and young people to develop an understanding of themselves and their place in modern society so they can create a better world life learning is the story of how children can personalize and control their own learning and what adults can do and stop doing to help them arguing for life moral and values education as a bedrock for the original goals of school education this monograph explores how life and values education is conceptualised and imparted in greater china under a globalized transnational and technological world where there has been an increase in people s mobility in information and cultural exchanges there is also a growing emphasis on personal and professional ethics against this context life moral and values education has gained attention for its impact on shaping students characters as future citizens however the cultivation of these values is made deeply diversified and complex by varying interpretations of life education and values education across societies given that different societies are influenced by different socio cultural traditions educational ideologies and religious beliefs the means and approaches towards life education also vary vastly from formal school subjects school based programmes as well as teachers and peers role modelling community services extra curricular activities school discipline charity work pastoral care and school ethos recognising this inherent diversity and complexity in the approach to and the dissemination of life education the contributors to this volume survey the practice of life education in greater china so far suggesting that life education is most effective when it is diversified dynamic and developmental across contexts this book will provide the opportunity for engaging in important and serious debates about the future and the values that will underpin it and will prove of special interest to scholars and practitioners working on education policies curriculum development and teacher education in greater china contemporary family life educators operate within a wide range of settings and with increasingly varied populations and families in the fourth edition of family life education carol darling and dawn cassidy are pleased to have sharon ballard join in the process of exposing readers to the diverse landscape of the field while laying a comprehensive research based and practical foundation for current and future family life educators the authors who are cfle certified consider the certified family life educator credential requirements of the national council on family relations throughout the text their broad overview of the field includes a brief history and discussion of family life education as an established profession new to this edition is the inclusion of several models that provide insight into the discipline and practice there is expanded information about working with diverse audiences and the skills needed to be a culturally competent family life educator the addition of the personal experiences and reflections of 17 family life educators working in a variety of settings provides a meaningful context to the continuing evolution and importance of family life education in society the authors incorporate theory research and practice while also providing guidelines for planning implementing and evaluating family life education programs content on sexuality education relationship and marriage education and parenting education highlights some of the more prevalent trends and
